Tax sleuths raid former NSE chief

Swoop down on her properties in Mumbai

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

CLOSE on the heels of markets regulator Sebi ticking off former NSE boss Chitra Ramakrishna for leaking out sensitive information to an unknown outsider, tax sleuths of the Mumbai investigation wing swooped down on her and her then advisor Anand Subramanian's premises on Thursday morning for suspected tax evasion.

The searches at Ramkrishna's premises in Mumbai and Subramanian's in Chennai were still going on at the time of writing this. An official said the decision to conduct raids had been taken at the "highest level". An aspect that has caught the attention of officials is an e-mail exchange dated February 17, 2015, between Ramkrishna and the unknown person regarding a trip to Seychelles, a year before a treaty for the exchange of information between India and that country came into force.

Chitra Ramakrishna

As cited by Sebi in its order, the unknown person writes, "...p.s, keep bags ready I am planning travel to Seychelles next month, will try if you can come with me, before Kanchan goes to London with Kaanchana and Barghava and you to New Zealand with two children. HK is a preferred transit or Singapore for onward journey. In case you need help pi let me know Seshu will do the needful. If you know swimming then we could enjoy a sea bath in Seychelles and rest on the beach. I am asking my tour operator to connect with Kanchan for all of our tickets."

Tax officials are probing whether the trip was undertaken and its ramifications if any, sources said.

A text message to Ramkrishna seeking her comment went unanswered till the time of going to press. Subramanian was not reachable. Ramakrishna allegedly appointed Subramanian at the instance of the unknown person, handing him an obscene salary of ₹4.21 crore per annum with the designation of group strategy officer and advisor the CEO of NSE.

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

TOURING poll-bound Punjab, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday attacked the state's CM Charanjit Singh Channi over his recent remark that people of the state should not let "Bhaiyas" from UP and Bihar enter the state.

"The Congress has always pitted people of one region against the other. The Congress CM gave a statement yesterday that received claps from a member of the Congress family (Priyanka Gandhi). Who are they insulting with such statements? People will not spare them for this," the PM said addressing a rally at Abohar. P11

Manmohan: Why blame history for your failures?

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AHEAD of the high-octane Assembly elections in Punjab, former prime minister Manmohan Singh on Thursday launched a rare attack on the BJP, asking why the Centre keeps blaming Jawaharlal Nehru for the country's problems despite being in power for the past seven years.

"I firmly believe that the post of PM has a special dignity, and by blaming the history, one cannot wash off one's own sins," he said in a video message. The former PM, who is not known for sharp messages, hit out at the BJP-led government for allegedly dividing people to achieve its selfish objectives. P11

STATE TO PRESENT ITS SIDE ON HIJAB ISSUE IN HC TODAY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE State Government will submit its arguments before the Karnataka High Court with regard to the hijab issue on Friday. The arguments of the counsel representing some students in a batch of petitions questioning the ban on hijab in classrooms, concluded on Thursday.

Advocate General Prabhuling K Navadagi told the full bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justices Krishna S Dixit and JM Khazi that he will present the government's views on Friday. The full bench has been hearing the pleas questioning the order issued by the State Government ban wearing of the hijab inside classrooms, from February 11.

During Thursday's hearing, Dr Vinod G Kulkarni, a consulting neuropsychiatrist from Hubballi, argued on his own with regard to public interest litigation filed by him, that the hijab issue has created mass hysteria and disturbed the minds of all, particularly Muslim girl students. P6

Swachh rank: Palike will ask you to rate city

Civic body seeks opinions on cleanliness, experts say it should focus on clearing garbage regularly

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a bid to improve Bengaluru's ranking in the Swachh Bharat ratings, especially in getting sufficient public opinions, Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) is training its staffers to approach citizens, talk to them and convince them to participate in the feedback and rating exercise.

BBMP is training pourakarmikas, joint health inspectors, assistant executive engineers, members of community participation projects and officials at the ward level on how to talk to people and convince them to take up the survey exercise. These staffers will visit people, approach citizens in public places, eateries and even at their doorstep, to make them aware and involve them in the city's rating exercise. These trained staffers will also visit apartment complexes, community residential areas and approach resident welfare groups to garner maximum support.

"Even as efforts are being made to clean and green the city, people's participation is essential. Whether it is good or bad, in support of the civic corporation and state government or against it, does not matter. Feedback is essential. The city has a huge population, and is the tech capital. Every one, even a slum-dweller, has a smartphone and an opinion on the garbage condition. They must use the platform to express it, that's the BBMP's aim this time," said a senior BBMP official not wanting to be named. BBMP records show that so far around 3,000 feedback forms have been received and most of them are complaints on garbage piles.

Experts working with the Palike state that instead of focussing on feedback, BBMP should work with citizens and RWAs on clearing the garbage piles. The common complaint at most ward committee meetings is resurfacing of black spots, and lack of BBMP efforts at bridging the gap between the time when garbage is dumped and when it is picked up.

"One of the major problems in maintaining cleanliness in Bengaluru is that garbage collection timing ends at 2pm. After that, there is no system of collecting garbage strewn in public and residential spaces till 6am next day. BBMP knows the problem, it doesn't need feedback on this. If BBMP staffers pay attention and implement suggestions made at ward committee meetings, the city will be clean," said a member of The Ugly Indians team.

POTHOLE CITY

BBMP chief engineer apologises before HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BBMP Engineer-in-Chief S Prabhakar on Thursday tendered an unconditional apology before the Karnataka High Court for not appearing in person with regard to orders passed by the court over filling up of potholes, and filed an affidavit stating that he will be more careful and comply with all orders sincerely in future.

In the affidavit filed before the division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Suraj Govindaraj, Prabhakar stated that an agency which earlier provided advanced technology of hot mix to fill up potholes on a stretch of 182.38km, has been engaged for six months, and work had started on February 14. The affidavit stated that BBMP said the short-term tender has been issued, and will be opened in the first week of March.

Recording this, the court observed that the concern of petitioners and the public at large is that proper technology should be used in filling up potholes and also road repairs, so that deaths in motor vehicle accidents caused due to potholes should not recur. The court on Tuesday issued a bailable warrant against Prabhakar for not appearing in person, and directed the City Police Commissioner to execute the warrant. When he presented himself, the court said it had called the Engineer-in-Chief to solve the problem of potholes in the city, as engineers are creating problems. "You (Engineer-in-Chief) don't go by the suggestions of engineers who don't want to be solve the problem of potholes, therefore apply your mind independently and personally look into the matter to ensure that potholes are filled properly," the court told him.

File case on Ejipura flyover contractor: Court to Palike

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

TAKING serious note of the over two-year delay in completing construction of the flyover between Ejipura Junction and Kendriya Sadan at Koramangala, and also not responding to notices, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) chief commissioner to lodge an FIR against the contractor, Simplex Infrastructures Ltd, for misappropriation of funds and to cancel the contract.

"We prima facie find that the delay is because of the contractor. Public money is involved in the project and the people at large have been put to inconvenience due to delay in completion of the project", said a division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Suraj Govindaraj. The court was hearing public interest litigation filed by one Adinarayana Shetty relating to loss and damages caused due to the delay in completion of the project.

The court also directed the Principal Secretary, Urban Development Department, to grant permission for cancellation of the contract within one week.

The BBMP commissioner shall thereafter take appropriate steps for completion of the project on its own or engaging any other agency.

The project should be completed expeditiously in a time-bound manner and the action taken shall be placed before the court on the next date, the court ordered, while adjourning the matter for two weeks.

In a first, audits done in 64 layouts: CM

ENS @ Bengaluru

The state government, for the first time, has conducted land audits in 64 layouts developed by the BDA, CM Basavaraj Bommai said. The land that has been taken back in many layouts will be developed and allotted, he said. "For the first time, audits were done in 64 layouts to get all details about layout development. Now, based on that audit, the government will take up comprehensive development of the land that is taken back," he said.

Audits of 64 layouts covering 38,380 acres were awarded to EI Technologies Private Limited on November 30, 2018. Of the 64 layouts, the audits were carried out in 62 layouts except Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout and HSR Layout 2nd stage layout. The extent of land as per final notification with regard to 62 layouts was 34,219 acres, of that land utilized for layout formation by the BDA Engineering Department was 11,884 acres and the extent of the built-up area within acquired land was 15386 acres, the CM said in the Assembly.

As much as 14,686 acres of (land in both layouts formed and not formed) was under litigation, and 2,036 was under denotification. Vacant (bulk) land for which the notification has been done, but the award yet to be passed was 1,207 acres, and a total 1,86,390 sites were formed in 62 layouts.

ORR stretch to bear Puneeth's name

ENS @ Bengaluru

RESPONDING requests from citizens, the BBMP has decided to rename a 12-km stretch of the Outer Ring Road, from Nayandahalli Junction to Bannerghatta Road, as Puneeth Rajkumar Road.

With the Palike taking the decision to rename the stretch, the matter now stands before the government for final approval.

On Thursday, the Palike made its decision public, with signatures of BBMP Administrator Rakesh Singh on the order, dated February 16, 2022. Singh had approved the proposal on February 10.

Soon after the demise of Puneeth, many Bengalureans and fans of the actor asked the government that his philanthropic activities be recognised and honoured, and a road be named after him. On December 18, the BBMP, through an advertisement, sought public opinion and objections. Over 700 people supported the proposal of the BBMP and members of many resident welfare organisations also backed the idea. However, a few members of Ambarish Abhimani Sangha demanded that the stretch be renamed after the late Rebel Star.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

18th February: Friday is here. One thing to say about today is that it is generally considered a feminine day. This is not the case in all traditions, but it is in some, including the Indian. It's therefore a perfect day to worship goddesses, respect women and honour the female side in all of us.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)

Anyone born under the sign of Aries tends to be portrayed as rather arrogant and self-interested. Yet now that Venus' difficult aspects are in the past, you may be the first to move towards reconciliation at home. If extra spending can ease the way, so be it.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)

No matter how anxious you may be after recent developments, you must give other people the chance to have their say. Do not attempt to bulldoze reluctant partners into a misguided agreement. If you do, I think it could be you who changes your mind first.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)

Because the belligerent planet Mars is triggering a communicative region of your chart, you will have no choice but to come clean and put your arguments forward with commitment and determination. But, once you've won the day, you have to show you can come up with the goods.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)

You may try to forget the past, but with a memory like yours it's not that easy! You must speedily bring a period of confrontation to a final full stop and look for ways to reinstate a particular person into the fold. You may now hope that an emotional relationship is about to blossom.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)

That fiery planet Mars is exerting a potent influence on your affairs, inaugurating a period of steadily mounting excitement. You must take risks if need be, but paradoxically only once you're sure of the outcome. Plus, take nothing for granted, however easy your path may seem.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

There are sound astrological reasons why you should not be unduly disturbed by tendencies which in normal circumstances would be very worrying. Yet do take notice of unconscious desires which have until now been suppressed. If you're fed up with delays, then hang on; there's only another couple of weeks to go.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

It may now become apparent that colleagues are in a position to compromise, which should come as a relief. Shift your energy to other areas, in particular towards a determined broadening of your objectives. There's something just over the horizon, and you're going to enjoy it!

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Like many people, you are going to have to re-orientate your opinions and attitudes if you are to keep up with the times. You should now cut out the waffle and fix your sights on an immediate professional goal. You might also want to rearrange a stalled social venture.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

At your best, putting others' needs first comes naturally to you. At your worst, you take people for a ride without offering anything in return. Please do try and find a middle way between these extremes. Especially, and this is important, at work: the last thing you want to do now is make rash promises you can't keep.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

Although you have come to a position where you prefer to face situations head-on, it may no longer be necessary to do so. Opposition may now vanish like a desert mirage, to be replaced by a surprisingly friendly atmosphere. If travel plans are coming unstuck, don't panic - just keep them on hold.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Put your thoughts and ideas into action through a creative and artistic approach. In other words, bring your own individual, unique talents to bear on questions that have so far been characterised by routine and boredom. And once you have made the grade, you'll receive the praise you deserve.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)

The explanation for a number of professional developments may not be explained until tomorrow. After an unprecedented series of emotional outbursts, romantic liaisons should have settled down. From now on, you have to be clearer with partners about what you really want.

Covid curbs to stay for now

Wedding gatherings limited to 50%, rallies, protests on hold

CHETANA BELAGERE
@Bengaluru

WITH the Covid-19 pandemic in the country indicating a sustained downward trend, the Central government recently asked all states and Union Territories to review, amend or end additional Covid-19 restrictions. However, the Karnataka government has decided to continue with the existing restrictions for a few more days.

"A majority of the norms have been relaxed already. However, congregations, increasing capacity of indoor gatherings, normalising crowds for weddings etc will probably have to wait for a few more days. We are already seeing a daily positivity rate of around 1.90 per cent. If it continues to be below 2 per cent for the next few weeks, we could ease those norms too," said Dr C N Manjunath, nodal officer for labs and testing on the State's Covid-19 Task Force and member of the Clinical Experts Committee.

Meanwhile, Bengaluru Police Commissioner Kamal Pant has also extended restrictions to rallies, dharnas, protests and social and religious congregations till February 28. Marriage functions will continue with 300 people outdoors and 200 people in indoor spaces. Sports complexes and stadia will continue with 50 per cent capacity till the month-end.

However, at a recently held meeting, TAC members also debated revisiting of the mask mandate and decided that the only two well-known defences against SARS CoV-2 are face masks and vaccination.

"Face masks protect against infection, and vaccination against hospitalisation and deaths. It is understandable that there is restlessness among people to revert to being free of masks. But these two measures have been endorsed by the Central government as well as courts of law, and will be continued in Karnataka. These are the only two measures of protection even for any new variant," explained Dr Manjunath.

Meanwhile, due to a steady decline in Covid-19 cases and Test Positivity Rate in almost all the districts, the TAC recommended reducing testing target to 75,000 from the current daily tests of around 1.2 lakh. "The TAC has recommended that 25,000 tests can be conducted in Bengaluru and the remaining 50,000 tests in the rest of the state," he said. Prioritising non-Covid care, the state has also decided to stop screening asymptomatic patients before admission, surgeries, procedures and investigations.

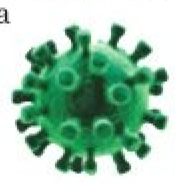
Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar told TNIE that in view of a decline in Covid-19 caseload, restrictions have already been eased and cinema halls, multiplexes, theatres and auditoriums are permitted to function at 100 per cent seating capacity. Gyms, yoga centres and swimming pools are functioning at full capacity with entry only to fully vaccinated persons.

RT-PCR report not necessary for travellers from Kerala, Goa

ENS @Bengaluru

PASSENGERS coming from Kerala and Goa to Karnataka, through all modes of transport, no longer need a negative RT-PCR report. Karnataka relaxed this rule on Thursday, following the State's Covid-19 Technical Advisory Committee's (TAC) recommendation. However, carrying a double-dose vaccine certificate is mandatory. Karnataka had recently relaxed these norms for those coming from Maharashtra.

A circular issued by T K Anil Kumar, Principal Secretary (Health and Family Welfare) said the rule was relaxed in view of the current Covid-19 situation. With a gradual decline in cases in Kerala and Goa, the TAC has recommended that Karnataka should stop insisting on negative RT-PCR reports from travellers from these two states.



Dr C N Manjunath, nodal officer for labs and testing on the Covid-19 Task Force and member of the Clinical Experts Committee, said when the Centre has relaxed restrictions for international travellers, the mandatory RT-PCR negative rule for domestic travellers entering Karnataka from states with a high Covid caseload at the beginning of the third wave, will have no relevance. "It is fine to revise these guidelines now," he said.

Meanwhile, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar took to twitter to announce the same. "Passengers coming to Karnataka from Kerala and Goa, through all modes of transportation, no longer need a negative RTPCR report. Vaccine certificate is however mandatory," he tweeted.

Couple in police net in 7-yr-old murder case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FOLLOWING the arrest of a couple, the Kamakshipalya police have finally closed a seven-year-old murder mystery in which the accused killed their relative, who helped them financially, and dumped his body in a drain in Andhra Pradesh.

The arrested have been identified as Mohammed Ghouse, 39, a tailor, and his wife Heena Kousar, 27, who were living in a rented house in Hegganahalli.

A senior police officer said that the couple had borrowed Rs 1.5 lakh from their relative Wazeer Pasha, 25. Ghouse had vacated the house after incurring huse losses in business, and came to know that Pahsa was seeking sexual favour from his wife, in return of his help, and warned him.

An enraged Pasha demanded that Ghouse repay his loan, threatening that he would file a police case. Humiliated, the couple decided to kill Pasha and called him to their native place, offering him a favour. When he reached, Ghouse was hiding in the house, and strangled Pasha to death. The body was stuffed into a plastic bag, disguised as a cloth bundle which was covered by shreds of cloth. The bag was then dumped in a storm drain in an attempt to prevent identification of the body.

After three days, Somandepalli police recovered the decomposed body and registered a case of unnatural death.

Pasha's wife, Ayesha, filed a missing complaint with Kamakshipalya police, and informed the police that her husband had gone to meet the couple. A team of police failed to track down the couple after launching a search for them for a few months across all the states. On February 11, Ayesha came to know that the couple were coming to Sunkadakatte to attend a funeral of Kausar's grandfather and she informed the police. The couple were picked up for interrogation and they confessed to the crime, and were produced before the court.

IN order to boost the biopharma industry, a bioincubation centre will be set up in Bengaluru by the Department of Electronics, IT, BT and S&T.

The Bangalore Bioinnovation Centre (BBC) was funded by the Indian Department of Biotechnology as well as Cytiva, a life sciences specialist company. According to a survey, biotech startups are expected to number 10,000 by 2025, from 4,000 currently. To aid this development, the incubation centre will train startups on skill development and also provide industry-oriented training for bioprocessing.

The centre will also aid in any kind of ventures or projects undertaken by companies in the field of biopharmaceuticals. The joint venture will also support infrastructural needs of startups, as well as mentor them during their initial stages of development.

The centre, spanning 10 acres and 60,000 sqft, will train startups on how to bridge the gap between ideas and research, and commercialisation. "With the industry experiencing fast growth, the need for skilled talents is increasing. This collaboration enables us to bring our global knowledge and expertise to support BBC, local biotech companies and academia in fulfilling the need for skilled talent which will lead to improved efficiency, reduced time and cost of regional biopharma industry development," said Vaggu Raghavendra Goud, general manager of Cytiva South Asia.

The Congress has hit out at the BJP for defending RDPR Minister K S Eshwarappa instead of sacking him from the cabinet for his controversial statement on hoisting the saffron flag at Red Fort. KPCC working president R Dhruvanarayan asked whether the BJP and its leaders are above the country

Blankets in hand, Cong men on night dharna

CM's appeal to withdraw protest goes in vain; Speaker may adjourn session if protest continues

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and BJP leader BS Yediyurappa try to persuade Congress leaders to withdraw their night dharna

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CONGRESS legislators on Thursday started a night-long sit-in dharna in the Assembly and Council halls demanding the resignation of Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Minister K S Eshwarappa over his remarks on hoisting a saffron flag at the Red Fort. They even got their pillows and blankets for the overnight stay in Vidhana Soudha.

The party legislators had staged protests in both Houses on Wednesday demanding Eshwarappa's dismissal from the cabinet and registering of a case of sedition against him. The bedlam continued till Thursday evening as MLAs pushed ahead with their protest in the well of the House even as the proceedings were conducted amid the din. Appeals by Speaker Vishweshwara Hegde Kageri and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to Opposition leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC president D K Shivakumar to co-operate with smooth conduct of business in the house proved futile. This prompted the Speaker to adjourn the session for the day at 11 am itself.

Presuming that the House doors would be closed, the Congress MLAs remained inside even after it was adjourned, while Siddaramaiah and other seniors sat in the lobby. As a matter of courtesy, the Speaker called on them and inquired about their wellbeing while Assembly secretary Vishalakshi spoke to them about dinner arrangements.

Reacting to the developments, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai told reporters in the evening, "The Opposition has misinterpreted Eshwarappa's statement and has been trying to create a negative perception among the people. The day-and-night dharna in the Vidhana Soudha is nothing new, but it used to be over people's issues, farmers' and state's interests. The Congress has hit rock bottom politically as it is staging a dharna over a minister's statement by propagating it as wrong, while there is no such violation of the law."

Later in the evening, the CM and senior BJP leaders including BS Yediyurappa met the Congress leaders and appealed to them to withdraw the protest.

Sources said the Speaker may consider adjourning the session sine die if the Congress continues with their protest when the House convenes for business on Friday.

Recent Protests

In July 2010, both the Congress and the JDS legislators had staged overnight dharna against then the CM B S Yediyurappa's regime demanding a CBI probe into illegal mining in Ballari. In July 2019, it was the turn of the BJP MLAs led by then Opposition leader B S Yediyurappa to stage an overnight dharna as the Congress-JD(S) alliance government, led by H D Kumaraswamy, was dragging its feet on taking a floor test.

WE DO NOT NEED GUIDANCE FROM SHIVAKUMAR: ESHWARAPPA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

RURAL Development and Panchayat Raj Minister K S Eshwarappa on Thursday launched a broadside against Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee president D K Shivakumar over the saffron flag issue, accusing the latter of lying about the Shivamogga incident wherein a student reportedly hoisted a saffron flag by replacing the national flag at a government educational institution.

"The national flag is bigger for me. I, along with BJP leaders L K Advani and Murali Manohar Joshi, had been to Kashmir where we hoisted the national flag after removing the Pakistani flag. Hence, we do not need any guidance from Shivakumar," he remarked.

The minister alleged that Shivakumar had fabricated the Shivamogga incident as the Superintendent of Police had clarified that there was no incident of the national flag being replaced with a saffron flag.

"Shivakumar has insulted the national flag by telling a lie. He is a traitor and should be arrested and booked under sedition charge. I will speak to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Home Minister Araga Jnanendra on this matter," he told reporters at Vidhana Soudha. He insisted that Congress leaders, who had "misused" the national flag by flaunting them during their protest in the Assembly, should be booked.

WAR OF WORDS

Council erupts over KSE's flag remark

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

MLCs of the ruling BJP and opposition Congress engaged in a heated exchange of words in the Legislative Council, during the discussion on RDPR Minister KS Eshwarappa's controversial statement on hoisting the saffron flag, on Thursday.

Chairman Basavaraj Horatti had allowed discussion on the matter in an attempt to restore order in the House, where Congress legislators were protesting since Wednesday, demanding Eshwarappa's arrest and his removal from the cabinet. The discussion went on smoothly for some time.

When Home Minister Araga Jnanendra, who came in defence of his cabinet colleague, questioned members of the opposition as to why they were not discussing the hijab row which has led to boycotting of exams and classes, Congress members retorted, saying they were ready to take up the matter once it was decided in the High Court.

Most of the members stated that Eshwarappa should himself come to the House and issue a statement, while a few others alleged that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai had not even tried to resolve the issue, and demanded his intervention. The war of words continued when Leader of the Opposition BK Hariprasad questioned why the national flag was not hoisted at RSS offices for many years. BJP members alleged that Hariprasad was lying.

BJP MLC Ayanur Manjunath intervened and made personal attacks against Hariprasad, and taunted him that he (Manjunath) had the capacity to win elections and had not come to the House by pleasing the party leadership. "Ask him to correct his language," Manjunath told the Chairman. Hariprasad quickly replied, "Tell this to Modi and Amit Shah."

This led to an uproar in the House, and Horatti asked Hariprasad to stick to the matter.

When Horatti proceeded with other business, Congress MLCs entered the well and staged a dharna, shouting slogans against Eshwarappa.

Activists seek clarification on HC interim order on hijab

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A delegation of advocates, students, women's rights activists from Bahutva Karnataka, PUCL-K, Dalit Minority Sene, All India Students' Association, students from IISc and other groups met the Director of the Pre-University Board, and requested him to look into the issue of several PU colleges turning away Muslim girl students, in violation of the interim order of the High Court.

The activists explained how the interim order applies only to colleges where the College Development Council has prescribed a dress code, and not to colleges which don't have one and where hijab was being worn previously. They said that students be allowed to write exams, or exams be postponed till the final court verdict. "We are dismayed that the PU Education Department, instead of formulating ways to calm tensions on campuses and allowing all students to continue their education, is instead a silent spectator even as Muslim girl students are pushed out of colleges with utmost indignity. This is happening as examinations, including practical examinations, have started," they said.

They also demanded a clarification be sent to all PU colleges on the High Court order, which said, "We make it clear that this order is confined to such of the institutions wherein the College Development Committees have prescribed the student dress code/ uniform.''

The interim order is being misinterpreted by district authorities, government departments, ministers and media, with a ban on hijab being applied to teachers as well, they added. "The order has been construed as an effective ban on the hijab across the state in all educational institutions.

Muslim legislators meet Nagesh

In light of the ongoing hijab controversy, several Congress Muslim legislators held a meeting with Primary and Secondary Education Minister B C Nagesh on Thursday. Citing incidents of students sent back home and teachers asked to remove their hijabs before entering educational premises, the legislators said the High Court interim order has been misinterpreted by authorities.

'1.2cr students, but only 500 protesting'

Primary and Secondary Education Minister B C Nagesh said he is pleased with the outcome of schools and colleges reopening on Wednesday. He said all colleges had reopened without incident, save for a few where students were sent back home. "There are 1.20 crore students in the state, but only 500 to 600 are protesting on the hijab issue. It seems like some people are behind the agitations," he said.

Not allowed in class with hijab, teacher quits job

Tumakuru: The hijab row continued to simmer with a guest faculty at a private PU college resigning from her post and a group of students laying siege to the deputy commissioner's office here on Thursday. Chandini, who teaches English at Jain PU College, felt that wearing hijab was her priority and gave up her job, college authorities said. She was particular about wearing the hijab even in the classroom, but the authorities did not allow her to do so following the High Court's interim order. So, she quit the job. Meanwhile, a group of girl students, who were barred from entering classes as they resisted removing the hijab, laid siege to the deputy commissioner's office.

HC JUNKS PLEA OF SOCIAL ACTIVIST

Therefore, those students be permitted to wear the hijab on Fridays and in the ensuing month of Ramzan between April first week and May first week, he pleaded. The court dismissed a petition filed by Arif Jameel, a Bengaluru-based social activist, against the hijab ban on the ground that it was not maintainable as rules made for filing public interest litigation had not been followed. Meanwhile, the court also permitted the counsel to withdraw a petition filed by five students in Bengaluru on the ground that the government order is likely to be affected, as the cause of action was not mentioned. But it gave liberty to the petitioners to file a fresh plea with full details.

HIJAB ROW

Religious attire barred in minority dept schools

Following the High Court interim order on the hijab row, the Department of Minority Welfare, Haj and Wakf has issued a circular prohibiting wearing of any religious attire in classrooms of its residential schools and Moulana Azad schools. Quoting the High Court interim order, the department issued a circular on Wednesday stating that the order is also applicable to residential schools and Moulana Azad Model Schools (English medium) run by the department. Further, the circular added that wearing saffron shawls, scarfs, hijab, or displaying religious flags in classrooms of the schools is strictly prohibited.

Govt allowed issue to simmer: Gowda

Wading into the hijab row, former Prime Minister H D Deve Gowda said that some girls are issuing statements that they will not abide by the court order, which is not a healthy development. "If we allow it to continue, it will be difficult in future. We are losing our way. It is the government that has allowed the issue to simmer for so long,'' Gowda said. Commenting on the standard of debate in legislature and Parliament, Gowda said, "I have not used foul language even once inside the House. With the use of poor and crude language, standards are falling and the quality of debates are deteriorating."

Decision on 7th Pay Commission after discussion, says Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday hinted at making an announcement in the budget on constituting the 7th Pay Commission to look at revising the salaries of State Government employees. The CM will present the state budget next month.

Responding to MLC K T Srikante Gowda's question in the Legislative Council on disparity in salaries between state and central government employees, the CM said they will decide on constituting the commission in 2022-23. "We have implemented the recommendations of the 6th Pay Commission. We are presenting the budget and we will discuss and decide on constituting the commission in 2022-23," the CM said appreciating government employees for their efforts in the fight against the pandemic.

Bommai said since the salaries of State Government employees are based on the state commission and central government employees on the central commission, there are differences between them. He promised that the government will protect the interests of state government employees.

Taking up the issue in the council, the MLC said there is a huge disparity between the state and central government employees' salaries and 25 states are giving salaries to their employees on par with central government employees. Karnataka should also do it, he said.

The CM said the economy took a hit due to the pandemic, but despite this, the government is going ahead with the recruitment of 15,000 teachers, 16,000 police constables and filling other vacancies as well as starting recruitment in Kalyan Karnataka Region.

Omar Abdullah and Tejashwi Yadav to attend

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tirunelveli

THE first part of 'Ungalil Oruvan', the autobiography of Chief Minister MK Stalin, will be released in Chennai on February 28 by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi in the presence of Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan, former Jammu and Kashmir CM Omar Abdullah, and Bihar leader of opposition Tejashwi Prasad Yadav.

Stalin made the announcement while campaigning through videoconference in Tirunelveli on Thursday.

Addressing cadres and leaders of the DMK on the last day of campaigning for urban local body elections, the CM said, "Hearing the names of freedom fighters such as Pulithevan, Veera Pandiya Kattabomman, Veeran Sundaralingam, Veeran Azhagumuthukon, Mahakavi Bharathiyar, Kappalottiya Tamizhan VO Chidambaram Pillai (VOC) gives us a surge of patriotism and makes people of Tamil Nadu raise their heads with pride."

However, during the Republic Day parade conducted recently, the tableau with the images of these leaders was not only rejected but questions were raised as to whether freedom fighter VOC was a businessman and whether Rani Velu Nachiyar was Rani of Jhansi, Stalin said.

"As Chief Minister I requested PM Modi who always speaks about Tamil and Tamil Nadu, to include the tableau in R-Day parade but we were told that it was the decision of an expert committee. The tableau was later taken across the state and it gained global fame."

TN cops can't harass LGBTQ+

GAUTHAM SELVARAJAN @Chennai

IN a significant move, the Tamil Nadu government had amended the Tamil Nadu Subordinate Police Officers' Conduct Rules to prevent harassment of any person from the LGBTQIA+ community and the people working for the welfare of the community. According to the order from the Home Department, issued on Tuesday, rule 24C will be added below rule 24B of the conduct rules, stating, "No police officer shall indulge in any act of harassment of any person belonging to the LGBTQIA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual) + Community and the people working for the welfare of the community."

The order explains that for the purpose of this rule, "harassment does not include the right of police to make any enquiry as per the procedure established by law."

"This amendment will provide hope in life for struggling people in the community. This is a really important move," said Malini Jevarathnam, a filmmaker and a queer activist said.

She said after Section 377 of the IPC was read down there was an improvement for the people in the community and this amendment is a another step in the right direction.

HC quotes Kipling, acquits woman of son's murder

Kochi: Acquitting a mother convicted for murdering her nine-year-old son, the Kerala High Court on Thursday quoted Rudyard Kipling and said: "Gods could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers." The division bench comprising Justice K Vinod Chandran and Justice C Jayachandran also observed that when a woman kills her progeny, "there is more to it than what meets the eye, the sensitivity for which investigators often lack." The acquittal came on an appeal filed by Teena , challenging her conviction by the Ernakulam Special Court in the murder that took place in 2016.

Kerala guv in a fresh bout with Pinarayi govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'Puram

THE latest round of duel between Govenor Arif Mohammed Khan and the Pinarayi Vijayan government had an unexpected casualty. K R Jyothilal, a senior bureaucrat with an unblemished track record, was shunted out from the powerful general administration department as the Governor conveyed strong displeasure over the letter he had sent to Raj Bhavan, along with the appointment order of BJP leader Hari S Karth as an additional PA to the Governor. The decision of CM Pinarayi Vijayan to remove principal secretary Jyothilal from GAD and appoint Sarada Muraleedharan as the new GAD principal secretary followed the brief discussion in the CPM state secretariat on Thursday afternoon.

Pinarayi hinted at an unprecedented situation if the governor further delayed approving the speech as the assembly is set to convene at 9am on Friday and the governor is supposed to deliver the policy address then.

The secretariat advised the CM not to escalate the matter as that would lead to an unwanted controversy,

AP, Telangana conclude first dispute meeting

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

ANDHRA Pradesh has reportedly sought amendments to the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2014, for removal of "anomaly" in taxation matters. The State made this plea before the Dispute Resolution Sub-Committee constituted by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs to resolve the issues between AP and Telangana.

At the first meeting of the sub-committee, Andhra Pradesh's plea was opposed by Telangana officials, who were of the view that any amendment, after seven-and-a-half years, will open more litigations and complicate the already settled issues.

With opposition from Telangana, the AP officials proposed that the Centre shall compensate the amount of loss to AP, if amendment is not feasible.

It was learnt that the Ministry of Home Affairs Joint Secretary (Centre-State), who chaired the meeting, did not gave any commitment stating that it was not a bilateral issue. Principal Secretary (finance) S S Rawat represented AP in the meeting.

During the meeting, AP has requested the Centre for settlement of ₹3,442 crore, which is payable by Telangana Genco, as a standalone settlement.

Family from Mysuru village donates land to school

Mohammed Rakib hands over land documents to the Bachegowdanahalli government school authorities at the registration office in HD Kote

AT a time when the hijab row has engulfed most districts of the state, a Muslim family from a remote village in HD Kote taluk of Mysuru district has donated 2.5 acres of their land to a government school in a bid to promote education.

Fulfilling the dream of their late father Mohammed Jafar, a resident of Marchalli village, who had pledged to donate a piece of land for serving the educational needs of children in the neighbouring villages and improving literacy rate, his children have now donated 2.5 acres, valued at over Rs 50 lakh, for the purpose.

The land was handed to the Government Higher Primary School in Bachegowdanahalli, and registered in the name of the headmaster, who can utilise it to enable rural children avail education.

Speaking to TNIE, Jafar's son Mohammed Rakib said, "My 'Ayya' (father) had pledged to donate a plot of land to the school, to ensure that no one is deprived of education and help improve the literacy rate in the region. We are six siblings – four brothers and two sisters. We had a discussion and decided to give away 2.5 acres as per the wishes of our late father, and we got the land registered in favour of the school on February 15."

The family, which is into agriculture, owns over 12 acres of land in the village and has donated 2.5 acres of it. Their hope that if there is any dearth of classrooms, new ones can be built on the donated land, or the latter can also be turned into a playground for children, or used for other development activities.

Expressing happiness over the gesture, HD Kote Block Education Officer Chandrakanth said, "The donated land can be utilised to help develop the school and also for the construction of new classrooms, if required, in future. This gesture of the family is exemplary and will motivate others to help."

THIRD-TERM HURDLE AHEAD OF KCR BEFORE NATIONAL ROLE

That K Chandrashekar Rao has national ambitions is no secret. Lately, the Telangana chief minister has become more outspoken. He mused at a recent press conference that one could rise to any position and referred to how Neelam Sanjiva Reddy, Narendra Modi, NTR and MGR created history. But before looking beyond the Vindhyas, KCR would have to first convincingly win in the Assembly elections to be held in the later part of 2023. Unless he emerges stronger, he may not be taken seriously. In the Telugu states, no leader has come to power thrice in a row. Chandrababu Naidu lost in his third attempt in 2004, the Congress was obliterated in 2014 in the reorganised state of AP, and now KCR has to cross the hurdle to score a hat-trick.

All opposition leaders worth their salt are eyeing the Delhi throne. In the forefront is West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee and now KCR, besides, of course, the Congress and others. Neither Mamata nor KCR would want the other to lead the formation that they want to craft. They may allow the Congress only as long as it plays second fiddle, given its impoverished stature now. Mamata is expanding her footprint outside Bengal and KCR is toying with the idea of forming a new party at the national level. But KCR will have to first vanquish the BJP in Telangana. Though it was an underdog in the 2018 Assembly elections when it won just one seat, the saffron party pulled itself together and emerged victorious in four seats in the Lok Sabha elections six months later. It is now very aggressive, having tasted success. The Congress remains a lame duck even now though it has a youthful president in A Revanth Reddy in the state.

Finally, it is a numbers game. Remember how the late NTR's hopes of rising to the all-India level, being chairman of the National Front, were dashed when he lost in the 1989 Assembly polls. He also just managed to win only two of the 42 Lok Sabha seats in Parliamentary polls in AP, thereby losing any claim to the post of deputy PM in the V P Singh ministry. Similarly, KCR could hope to play a bigger role at the national level only if he gets enough Lok Sabha seats at home and also wins a third term.

REIN IN UNRULY WORKERS IN KERALA

Headload workers in Kerala have been a law unto themselves for quite a long time. Affiliated to trade unions and patronised by political parties, they have been extorting from people and businesses alike. Though there has been some respite in the last few years with successive governments trying to boost Kerala's image in a bid to attract investments, the recent incident of an entrepreneur in Kannur closing his shop due to harassment by headload workers tells us that all is still not well. At least three other recent incidents of business ventures facing a crisis because of the high-handedness of headload workers have come to light. On its part, the government intervened promptly and the labour commissioner has been tasked with finding a solution. Two months ago, the Kerala HC observed that the Kerala Headload Workers Act was a 'relic of the past'. Suggesting that loading and unloading should be mechanised and workers be redeployed, Justice Devan Ramachandran said Kerala might be the only state where a law to protect the job of headload workers was in force. The workers cite the 1978 act, which protects their right to work, to defend their actions.

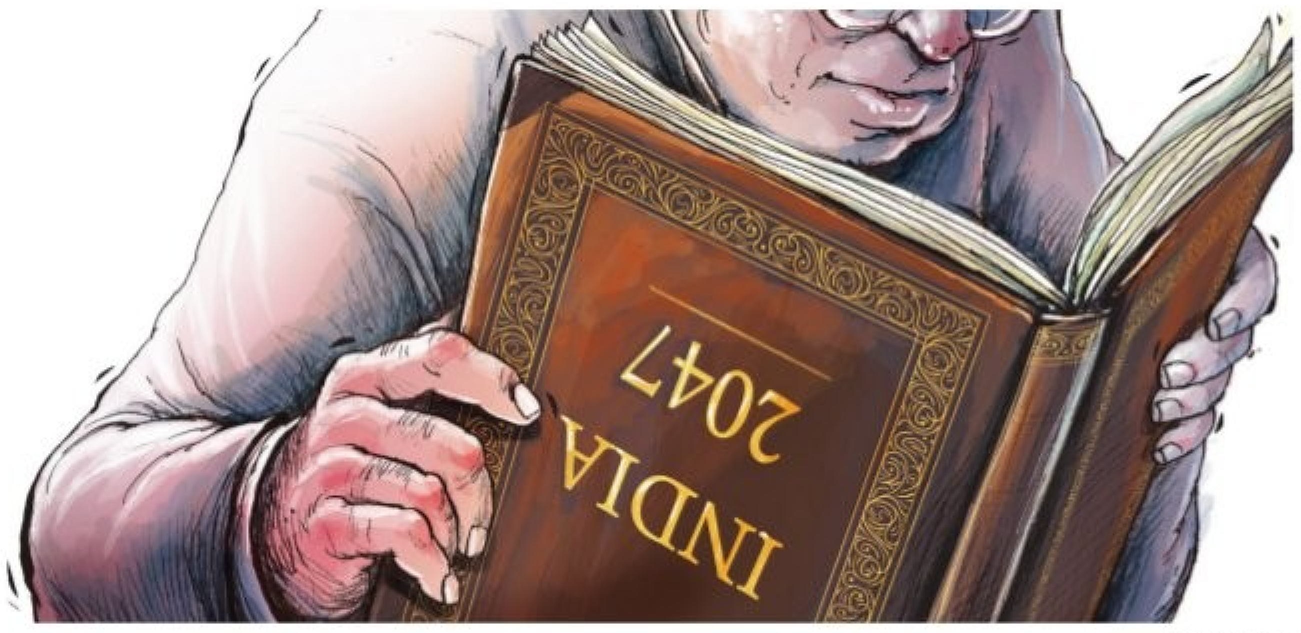
The Pinarayi Vijayan government, in its first term, had mooted an ordinance to amend the act for improving ease of doing business. However, the provisions that could potentially curtail the bargaining powers of headload workers were diluted when the Kerala Investment Promotion and Facilitation Act, 2018, was finally passed. But it retained a core provision that empowers businesses to employ their own workers for loading and unloading. Now, organised workers resort to violence when traders opt for this. The only way to end the high-handedness is proactive intervention by the government. It may be recalled that 'nokku kooli' (gawking charges), an unconstitutional practice by headload workers, was banned in 2018. Though there were a few isolated incidents since then, the government and the HC took a stern stand. Finally, a joint meeting of headload workers' unions declared the practice 'illegal' in September last year. The mission of bringing more investment to Kerala, which is close to the heart of this government, can only be achieved if unruly workers and their trade unions are dealt with promptly.

Lofty ideals and grand aims of the government struggle for space when the ruling party pursues a social and political vision that is based on hatred

INDIA AND ITS MANY CONTRADICTIONS

K JAYAKUMAR

Former Kerala chief secretary and ex-VC of Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University



SOUMYADIP SINHA

The epithet 'Wonder that was India' might be a cliche but India continues to make us wonder and confound on several counts. India that is Bharat has never been free of contradictions, but our polity always had sufficient resilience to live with them. We have allowed them to coexist without trying to forcefully reconcile them. However, in the past few years, the contradiction-load has been steadily growing, leading to cracks in national life. There is a tipping point beyond which contradictions can be self-defeating. Constantly reminding a nation about these old and new contradictions and their inherent tensions are a drag on any society as they consume the productive time and energy that should be legitimately committed to sustainable development, growth and equity.

We imagine being an Asian power and a rising global player, and take upon ourselves several geopolitical leadership initiatives. We wish to be a $5 trillion economy within a few years. As a developing economy, India wants to attract foreign and domestic investment. Reconstruction of the Central Vista and creation of other monuments to mark the greatness of a country celebrating 75 years of Independence are afoot in the national capital and elsewhere. In short, we have rightly created an image of grandeur for us.

The recently presented Union Budget tries to realise this vision of a new resilient India. Rightly, the emphasis is on increased capital expenditure, high-quality roads, fast trains, digital governance architecture, sunrise sectors like genomics, artificial intelligence, 5G spectrum, etc. There is the promise of e-passports, IT-based land records, National Digital Health Ecosystem, hitech services for farmers, Digital University and a host of ideas and innovations that would transform India into a modern superpower by 2047 when we would be celebrating a century of Independence.

Such a vision necessarily presumes a set of values like liberal economics, equity, inclusion, faith in individual enterprise, belief in technology and trust in human resource development. This vision has as its bedrock the belief in a peaceful polity where every individual is able to flourish according to his/her capabilities and enterprise. A national vision has to be rooted in a society that should have the potency to translate it into reality. Does contemporary India share this vision? Does Indian society share these values? When the ruling political party pursues a social and political vision guided by an entirely different set of values based on adversity, hatred and otherness, lofty ideals and grand aims of the government struggle for real space.

Contradictions have always plagued India. The mad Partition riots of 1947 inflicted deep wounds in the Indian psyche. The nascent India regained poise as there was an aspirational resolve in the mind of the new nation. Contradictions were aplenty in Nehru's India, but the task of nation building, scientific temper and secular values were sufficient to override them and provide the requisite traction for the nation to move on. Political activity, government programmes and legislation converged to achieve the accepted national goals. The Constitution of India with its largeness of heart and integrative vision provided the solid bedrock in times of crisis.

However, in the recent past, this fine balance seems to have been upset by the artificial accentuation of contradictions. India today presents a sad conundrum of mutually negating ideas and attitudes. There is a reluctance to accept in humility the prevalence of hunger, malnutrition, unemployment, abysmal rural healthcare system and urban squalor. The distress in the farm sector is sidetracked by ill-informed advice, callous diagnosis and sickening remedies. The quality of public education continues to slide and the increasing presence of private players in this sector continues to heighten the already existing social disparities. The state seems to be withdrawing from several areas, exposing the hapless population to market forces. Modern terminology and hype are no substitutes for positive, compassionate action.

At the political level, outdated and abominable ideas, words and deeds continue to vitiate our social life almost unchecked. Vitriolic rhetoric and fanning of communal hatred, reinforced by orchestrated social media onslaughts, create fissures in a society that has discovered an idiom to coexist for several centuries with all differences. The majority speak a language of intolerance and exclusion, making the minorities feel unsafe and marginalised. Draconian laws are invoked even for innocuous criticism. Dissent is interpreted as subversion. Critics are silenced in more hideous ways than one. Liberal thought and secularism are suspect. National institutions of repute and autonomy have been reduced to chorus singers due to the planting of hardcore ideologues in key positions. History and science are rewritten in an alphabet of antiquity. The scientific enquiry by national institutions (including IITs) is hijacked by skewed ideologies, forcing them to undertake intellectual gig work. In a nation that is eager to emerge as a digital superpower, internet services are callously snapped due to political considerations.

Is this the society that is poised to become an Asian superpower and a digital leader? When visions and proclamations of grandeur, efficacy and technology are continuously neutralised by constitutionally unsustainable primitive laws, exclusionist acts and posturing, the nation cannot move forward. It is akin to rowing a tethered boat. For a nation to progress, and progress fast, the polity, society and economy have to share certain common vision, values and camaraderie. In the absence of that esprit de corps that can be provided only by those wielding power, all our visions of grandeur could end up as nothing short of vainglorious grandstanding for short-term political returns.

AMEND IBC KEEPING INDIA'S UNIQUE NEEDS IN MIND

KAVYA LALCHANDANI

A legal scholar based out of UK

The Union Budget 2022 has met some expectations and has left certain questions unanswered. One such question that is yet to be worked on is the possibility of a further amendment to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. According to the disclosure about the intention to make the IBC more effective, the finance minister has indicated possible changes in three areas, namely—the adoption of UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency, voluntary winding up of companies under the IBC and certain amendments relating to avoidance transactions. The disclosure had also emphasised the role played by information utilities in the debt resolution of companies.

These three areas where amendments have been proposed will play a critical role at least in the speedy redressal of a struggling company. There are some important considerations that should be borne in mind because the IBC already has gone through a series of amendments. Therefore it is only prudent to make amendments as efficiently as possible. For instance, the UNCITRAL Model Law is widely accepted across jurisdictions, but it is very much possible to make provisions-wise exceptions to the same. It should be assumed that once adopted, it will be extensively used and will have wide-ranging and serious implications. Take, for example, the public policy article in the Model Law. It states that 'Nothing in this Law prevents the court from refusing to take an action governed by this Law if the action would be manifestly contrary to the public policy of this State'. Courts have repeatedly interpreted this as a narrow exception because of the usage of the word 'manifestly'. This means only the most fundamental national policies would be able to interfere with the enforcement of any judgment made by a foreign court. However, countries such as Singapore that do want their domestic policy to prevail in most cases drop the word manifestly from this article. India does value its domestic public policy, therefore the adoption of the Model Law on an as-is basis would not yield the desired result. Another area that should be looked at is the definition of the Centre of Main Interests (COMI) of the business undertaking because complex issues with regard to main insolvency proceedings, non-main insolvency proceedings, shifting/temporary COMI may also arise. This is essential because then the confusion faced by the adjudicating authority while deciding cases such as the resolution of Jet Airways with regard to the assets and the foreign administrator could have been avoided.

Voluntary winding-up was dealt with under the Companies Act, 2013, Section 304, Chapter XX, Part II. Now it is proposed to be covered under the IBC to have a speedy remedy before the dissolution of companies. Hopefully the procedure for the same will also be efficient. Avoidance transactions have recently gained traction since the inception of the proceedings being instituted under the IBC. But there was a lot of debate regarding the technicalities of the same such as the lookback period and counting. Therefore, further clarity is much needed at this point. Reference might be taken from the procedures in developed countries like the United Kingdom that have extensive laws and commentaries on the same.

The unique commercial setup in India should also be taken into consideration before passing any amendments. Different economies are at various stages of development and we should also consider the pandemic's differential impact on the many sectors. For instance, the MSME sector has played a key role in the development of the Indian economy. So no amendment should be passed without taking into consideration the impact of the changes on this sector, especially considering Covid and its effect on the industry. Only after a careful consideration of various regulations and model laws in many countries should the one best suited for India be taken forward.

The statements with regard to the proposed amendments during the Budget speech are promising because we have seen that the government is attempting a lot of endeavours in the development of very stable and strong laws with regard to insolvency and bankruptcy of distressed companies. This is evident from the fact that it has enacted back-to-back amendments such as the pre-packaged resolution process, and that problems with respect to prolonged timelines have not been lost sight of.

The unique commercial setup in India and Covid's impact should also be taken into consideration before passing any amendments to the IBC. For instance, the MSME sector has played a key role in the development of the economy. So no amendment should be passed without taking this sector into account

Increase interest rates

This is with reference to The side effects of low interest rates (Feb 17). As mentioned, the poor and middle class are facing financial losses on account of the prevailing low interest rates and high inflation. Since interest on fixed deposits offered by public sector banks is low, many are taking a risk and rushing to private entities. It is high time the RBI takes appropriate steps in this regard.

V N Subramanyam, Bengaluru

Poor depositors hurt

The points made in the article are very true. Both wholesale and retail inflation have been on the higher side for some time. Meanwhile, the RBI's Monetary Policy Committee is not increasing interest rates. So poor and retired depositors who fully depend on interest from FDs for their livelihood are facing losses. Will the Central Bank act at least now?

Tackle drug addiction

The news that the number of alcohol consumers in Kerala has fallen by 46% in the past four years is heartwarming (Feb 16). But it has to be read side by side with the information regarding daily haul of drugs in Kerala. Due to the easy availability of narcotics, many youngsters have become prey to them. The authorities have to tackle drug addiction.

Ignorance about Kerala

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath has warned voters that the state might become a Kerala if his party is not voted back to power. The bizarre comment about Kerala only shows his ignorance about the state's progress in different spheres and also its communal harmony and inclusiveness. Adityanath should realise that "making UP a state like Kerala" is certainly not an easy task and hard work is necessary for it instead of mere rhetoric. Or does he mean to say that UP should continue to remain what it is today and not progress like Kerala?

Farewell, Disco King

Saurav Ganguly is considered the Dada of Indian cricket from the 1990s. But Bappi Lahiri has been the Dada of Indian disco music and dance for much longer. He freely Indianised foreign tunes to attract our music lovers in the 1980s. Despite lacking a proper storyline, many films managed to become box office hits purely because of his musical numbers. Let his soul continue to inspire generations.

Fitting response to OIC

The response from the official spokesperson of our external affairs ministry to the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation's comments on the hijab row is fitting. The OIC should first strive to stop human rights violations and persecution of minorities in its member countries. India, a time-tested democracy, has the mechanism to take care of its minority population. It requires no intervention from abroad. Nowhere in the world are members of the majority community treating their minority brethren with as much accommodation and tolerance as in India.

Oppn leaders arrested

Instead of indulging in high-decibel attacks against the Centre day in and day out, the Telangana chief minister should focus on showing the people the ideal way to govern. He is instead getting opposition leaders arrested at the drop of a hat, showing his intolerance.

ASSEMBLY ELECTION 2022 DECIDE

Mulayam appears in first poll rally

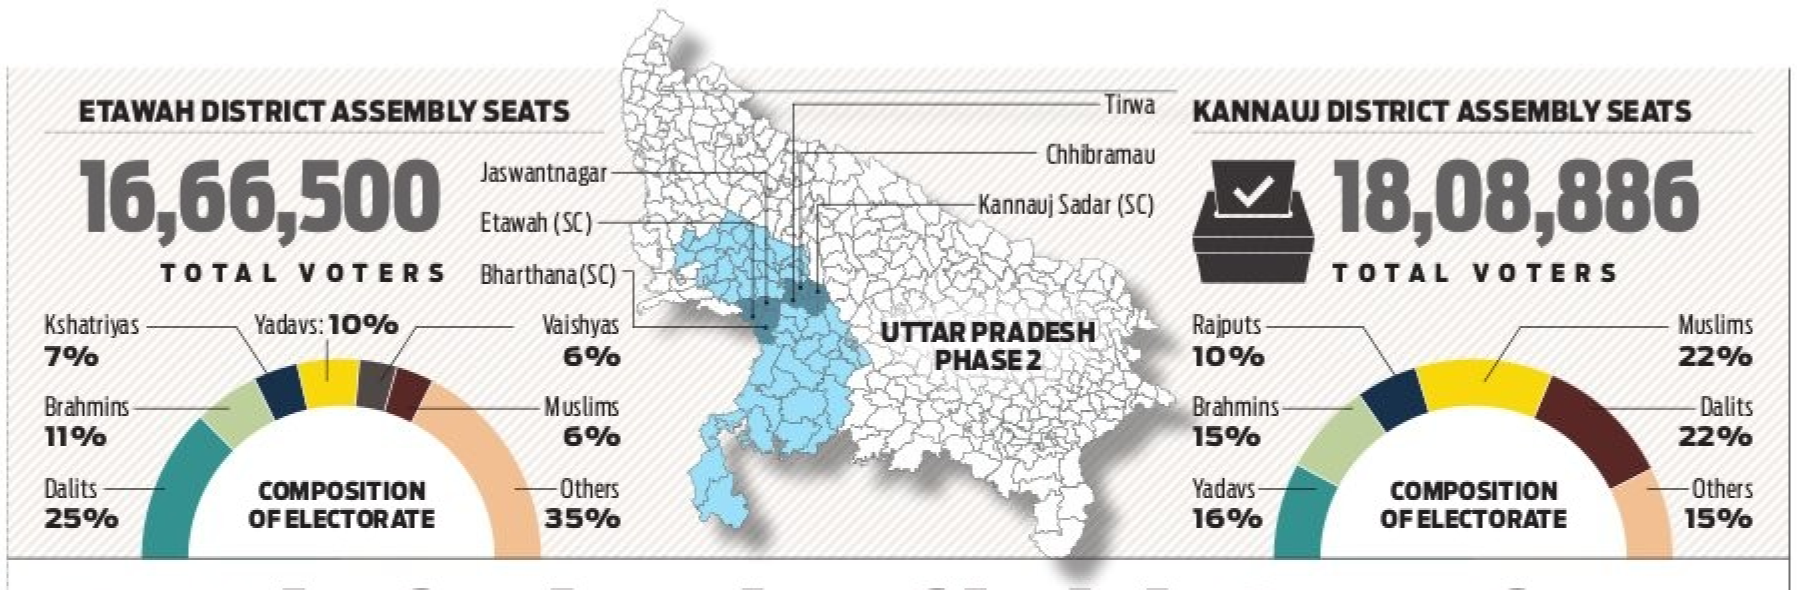
KARHAL (UP): Making his first appearance at an election rally, SP patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav on Thursday sought votes for his son Akhilesh Yadav, promising that his party will fulfil the aspirations of the people. Yadav said the people want that the problems of poverty and unemployment are resolved, and his party's policies are very clear on these issues. He appealed to the people to ensure the victory of SP chief Akhilesh Yadav.

Cong mocks BJP over claims about Manipur

IMPHAL: Senior Congress leader Jairam Ramesh on Thursday described the BJP's claim of bringing stability to poll-bound Manipur as "hollow" and its zero-tolerance policy towards drugs as a "joke". Ramesh told reporters that the Manipur government website informs people that only 47 per cent of the state's eligible population have received both doses of the Covid-19 vaccine, which is among the lowest in the country.

SP, BJP alike in fielding crime-linked netas

NOIDA: The SP and the BJP have fielded almost equal percentage of candidates with "serious criminal cases" against them for the third phase of the UP Assembly polls, according to a report. While 21 of the 55 candidates (36.20%) of the SP have declared serious criminal cases, the number of BJP contestants stood at 20 out of 55 (36.36%), the UP Election Watch and Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) report found.



Battle for lands of brick & perfume

SP wants payback for 2017 while BJP tries to retain seats in direct fight for Etawah, Kannauj

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Etawah/Kannauj (UP)

AS one travels on the Lucknow-Agra Expressway, smoke bellowing from chimneys of eent bhattas (brick kilns) far on the horizon gives a hint that Etawah is drawing closer. A manufacturing hub of bricks, Etawah draws its name from eent (brick).

With clean, wide roads, a kicking and alive Etawah is bustling with activity at 10 am. Each tea stall on the outskirts and deep into villages is an adda witnessing spirited debates over prospects of SP and the ruling BJP which had won two of the three Assembly seats in the district in 2017. While BJP had bagged Etawah and Bharthana, Jaswantnagar had gone to Shivpal Yadav of SP with a margin of 52,000 despite the family feud in Yadav clan in 2017.

In the current election, all these three seats are poised for a direct fight between the SP and the BJP. Shivpal Yadav, who had parted way from SP in 2018 over the family feud is now fighting from Jaswantnagar again on SP symbol. Since 1967, Jaswantnagar has been represented by Mulayam clan except 1969 and 1980.

At Jaswantnagar, as one begins interaction with a group of people at a tea stall, the discourse centres around Shivpal. However, BJP has fielded Vivek Shakya and BSP Brijendra Pratap Singh.

Crowd throngs Akhilesh Yadav's rally in SP stronghold of Kannauj | TWITTER

> I am doing my best to come up to the expectations of the party and people. Last time, we lost the seat by a narrow margin which we will make up this time — Aseem Arun, BJP candidate in Kannauj Sadar

"We will vote for Shivpal Yadav who has done a lot development here," says Sumit Mishra, a trader, based in Rainagar locality. Expressing similar sentiment, Badruddin Farooqui, 72, of Mohalla Sarai, explains: "Shivpal, the four time MLA, is found always standing by the side of his people — both in their grief and happiness." Farooqui claims Shivpal has no challenge here.

TNIE @ GROUND ZERO

This claim gets weight when Agam Sharma, a cloth merchant and a BJP supporter, concedes that only Shivpal will win from Jaswantnagar.

Meanwhile, as one enters Etawah, which is a reserved constituency, people portray a different picture. "It will not be a cakewalk for SP as many of Mulayam and Shivpal supporters have gone to the BJP and rest are not backing SP candidate as they are miffed with Shivpal's humiliation by Akhilesh who has left just Jaswantnagar seat for him," says Krishna Murari Gupta, a local trader.

However, in the rural pockets — both in Etawah and Bharthana — the issue of stray cattle is overriding. Paan Singh Yadav, in Bharthana (reserved seat), says his vote is for those who will protect crops from stray cattle.

As one proceeds further on Lucknow-Agra Expressway, the perfume capital of India, Kannauj, with three Assembly segments — Kannauj Sadar (SC), Tirwa and Chhibramau — appears on poll arena.

In 2017, BJP could win two — Tirwa and Chhibramau — of the three seats. It failed to make forays into Kannauj Sadar, an SP stronghold. To breach the SP fortress, BJP has fielded former police commissioner Aseem Arun who is challenging the might of two-time SP MLA Anil Dohre. In 2017, Dohre had defeated the BJP candidate by just 2,454 votes.

"Last time, we lost the seat by a narrow margin which we will make up this time. I belong to Kannauj and remained always connected to my roots here. My police background will also give me an edge," says Aseem Arun. BJP had won the seat three times from 1991 to 1996 during the temple movement, whereas, SP has been winning it since 2007. Despite being a reserved seat, BSP could never register its presence here.

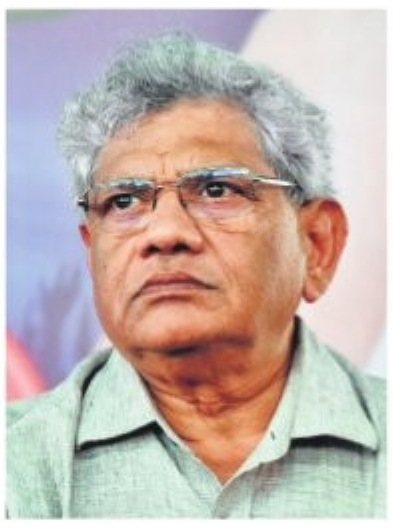
However, the voters feel that development is the issue in Kannauj Sadar. "Education, employment, roads and potable water are the issues here," says advocate Anil Dwivedi.

Other issues include recession in perfume industry, potato glut and unemployment. Kannauj has over 200 manufacturing units of perfume.

The perfume traders, who export 'ittra' worth ₹100 crore annually, claim that the trade could not reach the heights owing to pandemic hardships but appreciate Yogi government's efforts to give a global market to 'ittra' through One District One Product scheme.

MISSION 2024

'BRINGING DOWN BJP FROM POWER OUR PRIORITY'



BRINGING down the Modi government is the top priority for the Left, which will consider the possibility of joining any third front or opposition alliance only after this objective is achieved, CPI(M) general secretary Sitaram Yechury told Rajesh Kumar Thakur in an interview. Excerpts:

Do you think a Third Front imperative to challenge the BJP's hegemony in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections?
At present, talking about the Third Front is mere speculation. In Indian politics, so far pre-poll coalitions in parliamentary elections have not been successful. They have succeeded only in state elections. Was there a pre-poll alliance in 2004? The UPA was formed after the elections and ruled for two terms. Currently, the need is that all opposition parties first fight strongly to defeat the BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections and then think about a post-poll coalition.

Would the CPM go with the TMC if the latter forges a non-Congress, non-BJP front with parties like TSR, DMK?
Again, I am repeating that talks about pre-poll alliances or Third Front are premature. The TMC, just a few days ago, had marred the local bodies' elections in West Bengal with violence. In Bengal, the CPM lost 229 comrades between 2011 and 2021 and around 1,02,000 sympathisers were driven away from their homes. More than 1,30,000 of our members were implicated in false cases. The TMC, having been a part of the BJP-led NDA, is today ranged against the BJP. But it continues with its anti-CPM actions. It is aspiring to be the leader of the anti-BJP forces at the national level. We are neither against such aspirations of any party nor in support till we pull down the BJP from power.

In its draft political resolution, the CPM has noted that the Congress party's political strength is on a decline. Will you be inclined towards joining a coalition led by it?
Our objective is to defeat the BJP in the next parliamentary elections. Whichever party in opposition works on this objective, we can have an 'electoral understanding' with them for the common goal… There can't be a political alliance with the Congress party. But the CPM will continue supporting all secular parties in their efforts to defeat the BJP.

TMC supremo and West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee recently telephoned her Tamil Nadu and Telangana counterparts suggesting a meeting of all opposition CMs over governors overstepping constitutional mandate in non-BJP states. Will the CM of your party join such a meeting if it is held?
This does not carry much political significance for us. The most important task for us is to educate and polarise the people against the BJP-led government that has ruined the future of the youth.

Q&A

Will the results of state polls have a bearing on opposition strategies against the BJP?
Yes, they will. But despite that, there is a need to work objectively to make the people aware of the BJP-led government's utter failure in sorting out country's basic problems. At the national level, five Left parties have given joint calls for action on various issues and we will continue fighting to first pull down the BJP from power and then think of anything further.

It is said that the Opposition lacks a face to counter Modi. With this handicap, how will they be able to oust the BJP?
Let me make it clear that it's not a presidential election that will be held in 2024 for which a face is required. It is the parliamentary elections, which will be fought on issues plaguing the country's prosperity and peace.

Modi attacks Kejriwal over Kumar Vishwas' allegations

"WAS Sant Ravidas born in Punjab? He was born in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh. He (the CM) asked people to not let those from Uttar Pradesh enter Punjab. So, will you turn away Sant Ravidas too? What language do you use? '' asked the PM. Meanwhile, Channi responded saying his comments were aimed only at Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal, who, he said, was trying to rule the state through the backdoor.

Training his guns on Aam Aadmi Party leader Arvind Kejriwal over allegations by former party colleague Kumar Vishwas that he supported the Khalistan movement, the PM said AAP's intentions are far more dangerous than they appear. "If these people have to break the country to get power, then they are ready to do that too. Their agenda and the agenda of Pakistan are not different,'' he said.

Former PM questions BJP govt over its foreign policy

"PEOPLE are being divided in the name of caste, religion, and region and are made to fight among themselves," he said, while attacking the "fake nationalism" of the current dispensation. "Their nationalism rests on the British policy of 'divide and rule'," he added.

Singh also targeted the government on the foreign policy front, saying the Chinese soldiers are occupying Indian land. "Chinese soldiers are sitting inside our holy land for the last one year. But efforts are being made to suppress this whole matter," he said. The former PM also said ties with friendly countries have deteriorated under the current dispensation. "I hope the PM has understood that foreign policy cannot be conducted by forcibly hugging leaders, playing on swings or going for biryani uninvited," he added.

According to the manifesto, girls from economically weaker and backward sections will be provided an incentive of ₹25,000 under Rani Gaidinliu Nupi Maheiroi Singi Scheme while all PM Ujjwala beneficiaries will get two free LPG cylinders annually. 'VIOLATION OF RULES LED TO REGISTRATION SUSPENSION'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

REACTING to the dismissal of a petition filed by NGO Commonwealth Human Rights Initiative (CHRI) in the Delhi High Court against suspension of its registration under the Foreign Contribution Regulation Act, officials in the Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) on Thursday justified its decision and said the NGO "failed to adhere rules mandated to be followed under FCRA on many grounds and violated it".

MHA officials said that the rules violated by CHRI include "failure in submitting an annual return for 2018-2019 as well as the details of the project for which the NGO received foreign contribution". There were instances where "foreign contribution received in India by the NGO was spent for the benefit of society outside Indian territory as well as providing consultation to an entity abroad," said officials.

SC sets aside HC order on local job quota

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday set aside the Punjab and Haryana High Court order staying the Haryana State Employment of Local Candidates Act, 2020, which grants 75 per cent reservation to Haryana domiciles in private sector jobs. The top court, however, protected all existing employees and made it clear that the law will be applicable prospectively.

A bench headed by Justice L Nageswara Rao set aside the February 3 interim order of the high court staying the Haryana State Employment of Local Candidates Act, 2020, saying that the latter "has not given sufficient reasons for staying the legislation".

"We do not intend to deal with merits of matter as we propose to request the high court to decide expeditiously and not later than four weeks. Parties are directed not to seek adjournment and be present before court for fixing the schedule for hearing. In the meanwhile, Haryana is directed not to take coercive action against employers. The impugned order passed by the high court is set aside as the high court has not given sufficient reasons for staying the legislation," the bench said.

Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for the Haryana government, informed the bench that similar laws have been passed in AP, Jharkhand, Maharashtra and Haryana.

While some industry bodies argued that the law was against meritocracy and against the Constitution, the state government had argued that the law merely makes "geographical classification", which is permitted under the Constitution.

India not in haste to fly out citizens from Ukraine

MEA advises people not to panic, while restrictions on flights eased

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

INDIA has no immediate plans to evacuate its nationals from Ukraine, but the restrictions on the number of flights that can operate between the two countries are being eased to facilitate the return of Indians.

While the Indian embassy in Kyiv had on Tuesday advised Indians to consider leaving Ukraine to temporarily leave the country in view of the uncertain situation, the Ministry of External Affairs on Thursday said there was no reason to panic and evacuate people.

"Our embassy is functioning normally and the staff is addressing all queries from students and Indians wishing to travel to India. We don't have an exact number of how many are looking at returning as some students don't want to miss their classes and are waiting to find out if online classes would be possible remotely," MEA spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said.

There are close to 20,000 Indian students in Ukraine. "Our focus is and remains on Indian citizens, students, nationals rather than anything larger than that and in terms of what we need to do to ensure that they are safe," Bagchi said.

Noting that there were limited number of flights between India and Ukraine under the air bubble arrangement, Bagchi said the restrictions on the number of flights and passengers are being removed. "Indian carriers are being encouraged to operate charter flights between India and Ukraine," he said.

However, no special flights are being arranged for evacuation, the MEA spokesperson said in a press briefing.

The civil aviation ministry earlier in the day eased the restrictions on the number of flights and seats between India and Ukraine. The decision was taken in view of the prevailing situation in Ukraine amidst the military build-up around the border with Russia.

At present, Ukraine International Airlines operates flights on the Kyiv-Delhi route. There are also flights operated by Air Arabia, Fly Dubai and Qatar Airways, though they are expensive and take longer as there are one or more stopovers.

'Covid toll report completely inaccurate'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday dismissed a research paper which claimed India's Covid toll is six to be eight times higher than the official figure, saying the report was "fallacious and completely inaccurate."

"India has a robust system of reporting deaths including COVID-19 deaths that is compiled regularly at different levels of governance starting from the Gram Panchayat level to the District-level and State level. The reporting of deaths is regularly done in a transparent manner. All deaths are compiled by the Centre after being independently reported by States,'' the Union health ministry said in a statement.

The official figure given by the government was around 4,60,000. The official death count now is 5,10,413 deaths.

As for the study conducted by Christophe Guillemot, a researcher at Centre de Sciences Humaines, Delhi, its estimation implies a death tally of about 3.2–3.7 million from March 2020 to early November 2021, a figure about seven–eight times higher than the official numbers.

"With 3.2–3.7 million Covid-19 deaths by November 2021, India now emerges as the country with by far the largest number of deaths in the world, well ahead of the USA (0.8 million), Brazil (0.6), or Mexico (0.3)," the report said. If India's revised estimates were incorporated, the world's death toll would rise by several million to 7.8–8.3 million Covid-19 deaths till 1 November 2021, it added.

In its statement, the health ministry said that the estimation was "not based on facts and speculative in nature."

"The study has taken four distinct sub populations — the population of Kerala, Indian Railways employees, MLAs and MPs, and school teachers in Karnataka, and uses triangulation process to estimate nationwide deaths," it said. "Any such projections based on limited data sets and certain specific assumptions must be treated with care before extrapolating the numbers by putting all states and country of the size of India in a single envelope."

NO DIGITAL ASSISTANT DEVICES IN OFFICE: I&B MIN TO OFFICIALS

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

REFERRING to lurking security risks, the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting has advised its officials to not share covert information while working from home and also to use 'security-hardened electronic devices' for office communications.

The five-point advisory issued on Wednesday asked them not to keep 'digital assistant devices' such as Echo, HomePod, and Google Home in their offices.

It also suggested voice assistants like Alexa or Siri in the smart phones or watches be turned off and added that smart phones might not be allowed inside the meeting room, if discussions are related to 'classified issues'.

Highlighting the fact that officials are using popular messaging platforms WhatsApp and Telegram for sharing classified information, the advisory note cum guidelines stated that such practice is clear violation of information security instruction in manual of the Departmental Security instructions and the National Information Security Policy Guidelines (NISPG).

To prevent leak of information, the officials were asked not to exchange 'Top Secret' and 'Secret' documents over the internet. "The Top Secret and Secret information shall be shared only in a closed network with leased line connectivity where Scientific Analysis Group grade encryption mechanism is deployed. However, Confidential and Restricted information can be shared on the internet through networks that have deployed commercial AES 256-bit encryption," it said.

The ministry recommended government email server National Informatics Centre and Instant Messaging Platforms such as Centre for Development of Advanced Computing's Samvad and NIC's Sandesh for the communication of 'Confidential' and 'Restricted information'.

"Utmost care should be taken during the classification of information and before the communication over the internet. The information which may deserve a Top Secret/Secret classification shall not be downgraded to Confidential/Restricted for the purpose of sharing the information over the internet."

The ministry also advised that solutions provided by government agencies such as Centre for Development of Telematics (CDOT), CDAC, NIC might be used for official video conferencing but even then top secret information should not be shared during the event.

Kashmir scribe faces arrest after giving court a miss

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

A local court has issued an arrest warrant against Kashmiri journalist and author Gowhar Geelani and directed the police to produce him before it on February 19.

The arrest warrant against Gowhar was issued by the court of Executive Magistrate First Class Shopian for his non-appearance in the court. "In view of non-appearance of Geelani after serving notice at him…, SHO Heerpora, Shopian is directed to arrest and the produce the person before this court on Feb 19 in order to maintain peace and public tranquillity," reads the court order.

The court had summoned Gowhar asking him to ensure personal appearance on February 7 for 'acting in a manner prejudicial to public interest'.

This was after it received a police complaint that he had acted against the public interest by sharing information on social media about a militant attack on a policeman on February 1. "You have disseminated information on social media that would have endangered the life of the injured individual and other persons besides circulation of your information have raised serious security and breach of peace concerns," the court said.

Police had earlier arrested two journalists Fahad Shah and Sajad Gul in February and January for social media posts.

Message to Valley: CRPF Raising Day parade in J&K

SANA SHAKIL @ New Delhi

IN a decision that suggests a likely policy shift for all the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs), and may come as a morale-booster for the security personnel, CRPF has decided to commemorate its annual Raising Day parade in Jammu and Kashmir instead of its usual venue – Delhi-NCR.

According to a senior official, the decision is in line with the suggestion given by Union Home Minister to have such functions in areas where the forces have significant presence so as to "strengthen their connection with public". The official added that this time, the event will be called 'CRPF Day' instead of 'Raising Day'.

Junior home minister Nityanand Rai is likely to be the chief guest at the CRPF's Raising Day parade, which is scheduled on March 19 in Jammu.

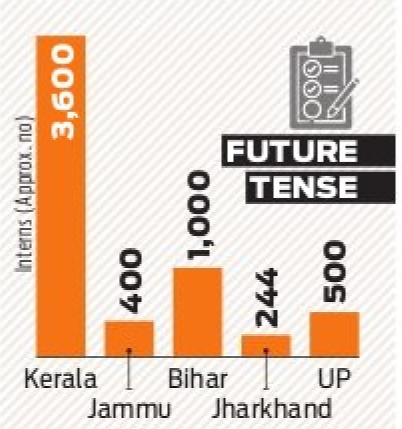
According to sources, other CAPFs are likely to commemorate their annual Raising Day parades at venues where they have been engaged for a long time. Sources say that the idea is also aimed at bridging the distance between the troops and the top-brass. On March 19, the CRPF plans a wreath-laying ceremony at Martyr's memorial and the CRPF Day Parade followed by cultural and Badakhana programmes, where all top officials will have meals with officers of all ranks.

Notably, the BSF had also shifted its Raising Day from Delhi-NCR to Jaisalmer last year. Officials told this newspaper that the shift of venue is intended at sending a positive message to the people of J&K where terror incidents have come down since the abrogation of Article 370 in 2019.

Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand were also considered for the ceremony as CRPF has its highest deployment in Left Wing Extremism-hit areas. "There were also deliberations on holding the function in Srinagar but ultimately Jammu was finalised," a CRPF officer said.

5K-plus interns to miss test despite NEET internship deadline relaxation

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi



OVER 5,000 medical interns from Kerala, J&K, Bihar, Jharkhand and Uttar Pradesh — who were pressed into emergency Covid duties — will miss the NEET PG 2022 exam.

Despite the National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences on Wednesday extending the cut-off date for completion of an internship for the NEET-PG 2022 exam to July 31, these interns will not be eligible for the test as their internship will not be over by then.

"Over 5,000 interns will not be eligible to take the NEET PG 2022 exam. In the history of India, there never was a zero year for medical students," said Dr. Karan Juneja, national secretary of the IMA – Junior Doctors' Network.

Vishnu Gopan, convenor, IMA-Medical Students Network, Kerala, said over 3,500 interns in Kerala were working day and night battling Covid. "For the 2016 MBBS batch, it is a matter of concern that we will miss our first PG attempt," he said, adding that there are 25 medical colleges under Kerala University of Health Services.

While welcoming the decision to extend the internship eligibility, Gujarat Intern Doctors' Association president Dr Meet Ghonia said the 5,000 interns will be unable to sit for the test for no fault of theirs. "The only reason they will not be eligible is that the government used them as workforce during the pandemic, and because of that, their internship started late. Now they aren't eligible. We request the government to take necessary steps."

Dr Juneja said if these interns cannot take their exams, they will be deprived of specialisation by a year. "Junior doctors are the backbone. The problem will be felt more in these states. In the long run, it will not only heavily impact our healthcare system, but people will also suffer."

Junk SUV, ride two-wheeler: Mamata advises councillors

KOLKATA: Trinamool supremo Mamata Banerjee instructed newly elected councillors of four municipal corporations to use two-wheelers instead of riding in an SUV and lead a spartan life for keeping themselves grounded in reality, party insiders said.

''You have a roof over your head and get decent meals. You can have a two-wheeler or at best a car to move around. Ideally, you should be using two-wheelers when you go out to meet people,'' Mamata told the councillors on Wednesday. ''People kept their faith on the party and elected you. So you become one of them and serve them in all possible ways.''

Mamata's advice is said to be significant as many councillors are known for leading a flashy lifestyle, something she has never approved of. The TMC supremo herself lives in a small ancestral house even after becoming the head of the state.

The CM told Gautam Deb, the next Siliguri mayor, to form a cell to check progress and execution of development works. She also advised the councillors to ensure participation of people from all walks of life in the development process. ''Her message is a clear indication that she doesn't want any malpractice in the civic bodies,'' said a senior TMC leader. ENS

'Countries often deviate from founding leaders' values'

THE debate was about a report by the Committee of Privileges about complaints against a dishonest MP, Raeesah Khan, who had to resign after it emerged that lied to Parliament. Lee said countries change over time and often deviate from the high ideals and noble values of their founding leaders.

"Things start off with passionate intensity. The leaders, who fought for and won independence, are often exceptional individuals of great courage, immense culture, and outstanding ability. They came through the crucible of fire and emerged as leaders of men and nations. They are the David Ben-Gurions, the Jawaharlal Nehrus …," the 70-year-old leader said.

Kin of PLA-captured Arunachal man pins hope on Modi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Guwahati

AFTER waiting for more than six years, the family of Tapor Pullom has appealed to Prime Minister Narendra Modi to bring back home the Arunachal Pradesh man, who was allegedly captured by the Chinese People's Liberation Army.

The release of Miram Taron in January by the PLA has rekindled the hopes of the Pullom family, who hails from Monigong in Shi Yomi district. Pullom has five children, including three daughters. His wife died in 2014. "We are convinced by Miram's release that PM Modi can bring him back. We have much expectation from him," Pullom's daughter-in-law Amoni Diru said. "Ours is an old case but please help us by bringing him back, alive or dead. A part of his body will also do. We can then do the last rites and say goodbye peacefully."

Pullom was captured by the Chinese soldiers in September, 2015 when he and his friend Taka Yorchi had ventured into a forest for hunting. Yorchi had managed to escape.

"We searched for seven days but got no trace of him. In due course, we had approached the Army as well as the local administration but they expressed helplessness," Amoni said.

The family had also taken up the matter with the then Union Minister of State for Home Kiren Rijiju.

"We kept waiting. In 2016, we tried again but those in authority advised us not to make a hue and cry or else the PLA will take his life." The family feels he is still alive.

Outstanding leadership tested through 'Synergy'

The usefulness of working as a team through various team building activities was tested at 'Synergy' – a workshop organised at the Dev Bhoomi Uttarakhand University earlier this week. "It's necessary to constantly brainstorm and exchange ideas to create and conceive better outcomes. As a team it becomes even more relevant, because an organised team decides the conditions and focus of an organisation," said Rakesh Marcus, head, career development department while addressing the workshop. For this, the workshop based on outdoor team building activity is being organised, which focuses on developing strategies that will enable the participants to identify themselves. The programme was organised under the supervision of chancellor Mr Sanjay Bansal.

Will be forced to respond if US fails to meet security demands: Russia

Kremlin insists on withdrawal of US armed forces in central, eastern Europe & the Baltics

MOSCOW

RUSSIA announced on Thursday it could respond militarily if Washington does not meet its security demands and said it wanted all US troops out of Eastern and Central Europe.

"In the absence of will on the American side to negotiate firm guarantees on our security from the US and its allies, Russia will be forced to respond, including with military-technical measures," the foreign ministry said.

The statement is the latest in a back-and-forth between Russia and the West that started in December when Moscow put forward sweeping security demands to the US and NATO.

The US handed back a response rejecting key Russian demands, including a ban on Ukraine joining NATO and clauses limiting Western influence in Eastern Europe and former Soviet states. In its formal follow up, Russia also said it insists "on the withdrawal of US armed forces in central, eastern Europe and the Baltics".

Thursday's statement comes as the US and its allies say Russia has amassed more than 1,00,000 troops on the border with Ukraine and Moscow-annexed Crimea.

In the document, Russia also said that it has no plans to invade Ukraine, contradicting US claims that an attack could come at any moment. "There is no 'Russian invasion' of Ukraine, which the United States and its allies have been announcing officially since last fall, and it is not planned," the foreign ministry said in a public statement.

US President Joe Biden on Thursday said the threat of a Russian invasion was "very high," even though Moscow in recent days has announced several troop drawdowns from Ukaine and Crimea. AFP

Attack on kindergarten a provocation: UK PM

London: The reported shelling of a kindergarten in eastern Ukraine was a "provocation" designed to create a pretext for Russian military action, British Prime Minister Boris Johnson said on Thursday. His assertion came after Kyiv and Moscow tradead allegations over intensified fighting involving Russian-backed separatists in eastern Ukraine, with the US also warning that Russia appeared to be moving towards an invasion. AFP

Moscow expels deputy chief of US mission

Washington: Russia has expelled the number two US diplomat in Moscow, the US State Department said. "We can confirm that Russia expelled US Deputy Chief of Mission (DCM) to Russia Bart Gorman. The action was unprovoked and we consider this an escalatory step and are considering our response," a department spokesperson said.

UN calls for restraint by all parties amid fresh shelling

Geneva: The United Nations urged restraint by all parties in eastern Ukraine amid fresh shelling that violated a ceasefire under the Minsk Agreement. "These must not be allowed to escalate further. We call on all sides to exercise maximum restraint," said Rosemary DiCarlo, the UN undersecretary general.

Ukraine says no need for allied forces on territory

Kyiv: Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky said the country had "no need" for foreign allied forces to face down a feared Russian invasion, warning their presence might only exacerbate tensions.

ASEAN meet dominated by Myanmar's absence

PHNOM PENH

SOUTHEAST Asian foreign ministers held their annual retreat on Thursday without their counterpart from military-ruled Myanmar, who was blackballed from participating but allowed to attend online as an observer.

The enforced absence of Myanmar's foreign minister put a spotlight on the normally low-key event, held this year in Phnom Penh with Cambodia as chair of the 10-member Association of the Southeast Asian Nations. The regional bloc has been trying to exert its influence to help restore peace in Myanmar, but faces defiance from its ruling generals

The decision not to invite Foreign Minister Wunna Maung Lwin reflected a disagreement within ASEAN over Myanmar's lack of cooperation in implementing last year's five-step agreement. It includes military leaders' promise to allow a special ASEAN envoy to meet ousted leader Aung San Suu Kyi and others to foster a dialogue aimed at easing the crisis.

At a news conference, Cambodian Foreign Minister Prak Sokhonn, who was appointed the ASEAN special envoy to Myanmar, appeared to express regret that Myanmar was not fully participating in the meeting. AP

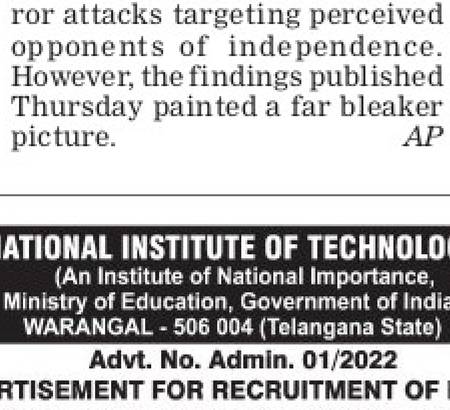
Dutch troops used 'extreme' violence in Indonesia: Study

THE HAGUE

DUTCH troops used 'extreme violence' during Indonesia's 1940s war for independence, and military leaders and politicians in the Netherlands largely ignored the excesses, a long-running research project concluded in findings published on Thursday.

The 4 1/2-year investigation by experts from three historical research institutes contradicts the Dutch government's long-held view that the country's troops engaged in extreme violence only sporadically as they battled pro-independence forces in what became Indonesia.

In a statement, the researchers said the sources they consulted "show that the use of extreme violence by the Dutch armed forces was not only widespread, but often deliberate, too. It was condoned at every level: political, military and legal". The researchers said it was not impossible to give exact numbers of crimes and victims.



A previous Dutch report, from 1969, acknowledged "violent excesses" in Indonesia but argued that Dutch troops were conducting a "police action" often incited by guerrilla warfare and terror attacks targeting perceived opponents of independence. However, the findings published Thursday painted a far bleaker picture. AP

Uncertainty looms in Mali as France announces withdrawal of its troops

PARIS/BAMAKO

FRANCE announced on Thursday that it would withdraw its troops from Mali over a breakdown in relations with the country's ruling junta, after nearly 10 years of fighting a jihadist insurgency that still poses a major threat to the West African nation.

The deployment has been fraught with problems for France — of the 53 French soldiers killed serving in West Africa's Sahel, 48 died in Mali.

"Multiple obstructions" by the military junta that took power in 2020 meant the conditions were no longer in place to operate in Mali, said a statement signed by France and its African and European allies.

French President Emmanuel Macron (R) speaks with Senegal's President Macky Sall in Paris on Thursday | AFP

The decision applies to both the 2,400 French troops in Mali, where France first deployed in 2013, and a smaller European force of several hundred soldiers, called Takuba, that was created in 2020 with the aim of taking the burden off French forces.

Though the move was anticipated by many in the West African nation where Malians have protested the presence of soldiers from the former colonial power, politicians and experts worry the pull-out will cause a security vacuum emboldening jihadi groups to increase their power.

"Today it's the terrorist groups who are happy with this announcement," said Amadou Koita, a former Cabinet minister in the Mali government. Agencies

Search for survivors on as Brazil landslides, floods kill at least 104

PETROPOLIS

RESCUE workers raced against the clock searching for any remaining survivors among mud and wreckage after devastating flash floods and landslides hit the picturesque Brazilian city of Petropolis, as authorities said on Thursday the death toll had risen to 104.

Streets were turned into torrential rivers and houses swept away when heavy storms dumped a month's worth of rain in three hours on the scenic tourist town in the hills north of Rio de Janeiro.

With dozens still reported missing, fears that the death toll could climb further sent firefighters and volunteers scrambling through the remains of houses washed away in torrents of mud, many of them in impoverished hillside slums.

It is the latest in a series of deadly storms to hit Brazil in the past three months, which experts say are being made worse by climate change. The state government said at least 24 people had been rescued alive.

Using dogs, excavators and helicopters, rescue workers were urgently searching for more before it was too late, with the Rio Public Prosecutor's office reporting that 35 missing people had been registered.

Around 300 people were being housed in shelters, mostly in schools, officials said. Charities called for donations of mattresses, food, water, clothing and face masks for victims.

Wendel Pio Lourenco, a 24-year-old area resident, was walking through the street with a television in his arms, heading to a local church in search of shelter. He said he was trying to save a few possessions, after spending a sleepless night helping search for victims. "I found a girl who was buried alive," he said. "Everyone is saying it looks like a war zone." AP

Australia to list Hamas and US far-right group as terrorists

CANBERRA

AUSTRALIA on Thursday said it added the US-based far-right extremist group National Socialist Order and planned to add the entirety of the Palestinian group Hamas to its list of outlawed terrorist organisations as concerns rise about radicalised children.

The National Socialist Order, formerly known as Atomwaffen Division, joins Islamist groups Hay'at Tahrir al-Sham and Hurras al-Din in being added to the list, Home Affairs Minister Karen Andrews said. Hamas' military wing, Izz al-Din al-Qassam Brigades, has been listed as a terrorist group since 2003.

The National Socialist Order, which advocates a global 'race war' and the collapse of democratic societies, joined the list on Thursday, bringing the number of outlawed groups to 28.

"The views of Hamas and the violent extremist groups listed today are deeply disturbing, and there is no place in Australia for such views," Andrews said. "It's vital that our laws target not only terrorist acts and terrorists, but also the organisations that plan, finance and carry out these acts."

The National Socialist Order is only the third far-right group to be designated by Australia as a terrorist organisation. The Base, a neo-Nazi white supremacist group formed in the United States in 2018, was listed in December and the British-based Sonnenkrieg Division was listed in August. AP

Two dead as Syrian helicopter crash lands

Damascus: A Syrian military helicopter crash landed in a rugged mountainous area during a training mission in the country's northwest on Thursday, leaving two of the five crew members dead. State media quoted an unnamed military official as saying that the helicopter faced technical problems while flying over the coastal province of Latakia and crash-landed in a mountainous area. A photo of the helicopter released by state news agency SANA showed its charred remains. Syria's conflict began in March 2011 and has killed nearly half a million people. AP

Controversy as UK pushes 'anti-woke' schools guidance

LONDON

BRITAIN'S government has stoked controversy by issuing new schools guidance that urges teachers to avoid "contested" areas in history and climate change. The guidance, which singles out the activist group Black Lives Matter, comes with Prime Minister Boris Johnson fighting for his political survival and accused of trying to distract voters' attention by pushing an "anti-woke" agenda.

Citing the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the legacy of the British Empire, the Department for Education said "teachers must not promote partisan political views and should offer a balanced overview of opposing views when politics is taught".

Education Secretary Nadhim Zahawi stressed that no subject should be "off-limits in the classroom". But it should be taught "in an age-appropriate way, with sensitivity and respect, and without promoting contested theories as fact", he said in a statement.

With Johnson under police investigation over a series of lockdown-breaching parties held in Downing Street, the government has been making a renewed push on "culture wars" ahead of nationwide local elections in May.

The government is driving through legislation to toughen up penalties for vandalising historical sites, after one statue of a historical slaver was toppled in Bristol and another of wartime prime minister Winston Churchill was defaced in London.

In a speech this week at a right-wing think-tank in Washington, Conservative party chairman Oliver Dowden denounced a "painful woke psychodrama" that he said was undermining democratic freedoms in the West.

Dowden, who sits in Johnson's cabinet, said "woke" thinking was prevalent in schools, universities and companies. AFP

LIC's embedded value at ₹5.4 L cr too high: Experts

IPO priced at ₹1,800-2,250 could make its valuation too expensive

DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi

THE pricing of Life Insurance Corporation's IPO could prove to be a tricky affair for the government, which is hoping for a windfall by divesting 5% stake in the state-owned insurance company.

Analysts say that if the IPO is priced at 2.5-3 times the embedded value, the IPO would be priced at around ₹1,800-2,250, making its valuation too expensive.

A fund manager at a top MF house told TNIE that even ₹2,000 is an impossible valuation for the IPO to get. He, however, refused to stick his neck out and quote the ideal price for the IPO at which it would look attractive. When asked if his fund house would be vying for the portion reserved for anchor investors, he said it all depends on the pricing of the issue.

The embedded value of LIC has been estimated at ₹5.4 lakh crore. Insurance companies already listed on the bourses – SBI Life, HDFC Life and ICICI Prudential Life – command a valuation of 3-4 times the embedded value. If LIC prices its IPO at similar valuations, the IPO would be priced at least ₹2,200, which analyst say is too high even by LIC's standards.

The fund manager quoted earlier said that LIC might have to relook at its embedded value. "If you look at return ratios of LIC, they are at sub-par," says another analyst.

LIC in its draft IPO paper says its average three-year Return on Equity (RoE) is 290% compared to SBI Life's 17%, HDFC Life's 21% and ICICI Pru Life's 14.4%. In 2020-21, its EPS was ₹4.59 compared to SBI Life's ₹14.5 and ₹6.7 each for HDFC Life and ICICI Pru Life.

At ₹2,000-2,200, LIC IPO would be valued at over 400 times its EPS. SBI life is trading at 82 times its FY21 earnings, HDFC Life 110 times and ICICI Pru Life at 117 times.

Former LIC veteran and an ex-IRDAI member Nilesh Sathe, argues that the price to earnings ratio may not be the best metrics to judge the valuation of an insurance company. "In other companies all profit belongs to shareholders, but in case of insurance companies, shareholders get only 5-10% of the profit and the rest goes to policyholders," he argues.

Jio loses 12.9 m users; BSNL adds 1.1 m

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

INDIA lost around 12.8 million mobile users in Dec 2021 as per the data released by Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) on Thursday. Among them, Mukesh Ambani led-Reliance Jio lost 12.9 million 4G subscribers and cash-strapped Vodafone Idea lost 1.61 million users during the period.

Surprisingly, state-owned Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) turned out to be the biggest gainer by adding 1.1 million new subscribers during the month of December 2021. Bharti Airtel gained 0.47 million new subscribers in the same period. The decline in the users was expected in December as all three private telcos had hiked their prepaid tariff in the last week of November.

The trend showcases that telecom operators succeeded in cleaning up their inactive and low-paying customers, which will improve their Average Revenue Per Users (ARPU) in future. Also, many low paying subscribers in Jio, Vi, and Airtel might have shifted to BSNL. The companies suffered most in the rural areas as Jio lost nearly 6 million users, Bharti Airtel 1.18 million and Vodafone Idea lost 1.18 million users in rural areas. However, Reliance Jio still dominates the telecom market with 36% followed by Bharti Airtel with 30.81%, Vodafone Idea with 23%, BSNL and MTNL with 9.90% and 0.28%, respectively. In terms of active users, Airtel leads the category with 98.01% of its user base being active followed by Reliance Jio with 87.64% and Vodafone Idea with 86.42%. Overall, Jio with 364.34 users has the maximum active users.

A total of 8.54 million requests were received for Mobile Number Portability (MNP).

The company's gross client additions rose to 1.3m in 3QFY22 from 68,000 in 1QFY20. Its active user client base with the NSE has surged multi-fold to 3.1m in Dec'21 from 0.4m in 1QFY20. The number of demat A/c has more than doubled to 77m in Nov'21 from 32m in FY18. LIC IPO is likely to boost the demat A/c further and ~15m new accounts would get added. Angel, with its stronger presence in lower tier cities, is likely to leverage on this opportunity. Angel One is our top pick for 2022 in the capital market.

Bajaj Auto plans to double its Chetak network as demand for EVs grow

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

TO tap the growing demand for electric vehicles and compete against new-age players, Bajaj Auto is planning to double its electric scooter Chetak's network in the coming few weeks.

The Pune-based automaker has already doubled the Chetak network in the first 6 weeks of 2022, adding New Delhi, Mumbai, and Goa to the list of locations where it is available. The electric scooter that was launched in January 2020 can now be booked in 20 cities, with a waiting period of 4–8 weeks.

Rakesh Sharma, Executive Director, Bajaj Auto, said, "Chetak's success has been built on the quality of a thoroughly tested, dependable product. An on-ground network of sales and service reduces the anxiety of a customer venturing into an unfamiliar category such as electric scooters. Our plan is to double Chetak's network in the coming few weeks to accommodate the high demand."

This rapid network expansion comes after the company's commitment to invest ₹300 cr to ramp up its electric vehicle production capacity. Bajaj had recently informed that it has commenced work at a brand-new unit at Akurdi, which will have a capacity of 5,00,000 units EVs. The first vehicle from Bajaj's new unit is expected to roll out by June 2022.

This expansion plan comes at a time when legacy two-wheeler manufacturers, be it Hero MotorCorp, TVS or Bajaj, are increasing their focus on developing EVs, market for which at present is almost entirely dominated by new-age players.

Nestle India Q3 profit declines 20% to ₹387 cr

The maggi maker posted operating revenues of ₹3,739 crore, an 8.9% rise over the ₹3,433 crore topline a year back. The revenue fell 4% sequentially from ₹3,883 crore in the previous quarter.

The company's board has recommended a final dividend of ₹65 per share of face value of ₹10 per share.

Suresh Narayanan, Chairman and Managing Director, Nestlé India, in a regulatory filing said, "Strong growth momentum continued in Maggi noodles aided by increased availability. KitKat and Munch registered stellar growth throughout the year. Nescafe Classic continued to deliver double digit growth."

Total sales and domestic sales for 2021 increased by 10.1% and 10.7% respectively, Suresh noted. "We continue to witness high inflation in our key raw and packaging materials, where many are at 10-year highs," he added. ENS

Employers may hire more freshers in first half of this year, says survey

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

EMPLOYERS interest in hiring freshers has seen a 30% spike in the January-June period this year as compared to the same period a year ago.

According to the career outlook report by TeamLease EdTech, while only 17% companies were keen on hiring freshers in July-December, 2021, more than 47% companies have expressed their intent to hire freshers in January-June 2022.

The hiring intent across all categories of job seekers in India — fresh or experienced — has risen to 50% from 31% over the same duration.

From cities perspective, Bengaluru has emerged as the most favourable city for freshers with 59% companies keen to increase their hiring, says the report. Additionally, Mumbai (43%) and Delhi (39%) are also the top cities for freshers

Information and Technology (57% employers willing to hire) is leading as the top sector. Apart from IT, another sector which has seen an up-tick in the hiring sentiment is hospitality and travel (by 2%). The IT sector also dominates the job market for freshers, offering 31% entry-level jobs.

Shantanu Rooj, Founder & CEO, TeamLease EdTech, said, "The 30% overall jump in hiring sentiment is a reflection of this growth. The economic revival and focus on growth are the key reasons driving the upbeat movement."

"Universities are increasingly adopting technology amalgamated skill based vocational learning and apprenticeship linked degrees which will enable our youth as well as increase the confidence of corporates in freshers", he added.

Despite price rise, housing demand to remain robust: Parekh

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

HDFC Chairman Deepak Parekh said on Thursday that demand for housing units in India continue to remain robust and a minor increase in interest rate will not have an impact on the demand for home loans.

"The India real estate market is on an upward cycle which bodes well for all of us. The big star of the real estate sector continues to remain residential housing in India. I hardly need to reiterate that demand for housing in India continues to remain robust," Parekh said while addressing the CII Real Estate event.

According to Parekh, the demand for housing continues to be from both first-time homeowners as well as those moving up the property ladder — generally into larger homes or houses in other locations. He added that in his over 50 years of work life, he has not seen housing affordability better than where it is today in India.

Commenting on the interest rates on homes loans which is expected to go up in near future, the veteran banker said, "We have seen home loan rates as high as 17-18% in the past. Today, interest rates are still at historic lows, so a minor increase will not have an impact on the demand for home loans."

However, many in the industry have concerns that if the central bank decides to increase the repo rate, it may have a negative impact on housing demand as increase in commodity prices have already made housing units expensive in select markets.

According to a CII-ANAROCK survey released on Thursday, 56% of respondents expects housing prices to rise in 2022 due to inflationary trends in construction raw materials and overall operational costs for developers. The survey, conducted between July and December 2021, polled 5,210 participants via various digital platforms across tier 1, tier 2, and tier 3 cities.

We have seen home loan rates as high as 17-18% in the past. Today, interest rates are still at historic lows, so a minor increase will not have an impact on the demand...

Govt unveils green hydrogen and ammonia policy for clean energy

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE government on Thursday notified the green hydrogen and ammonia policy in which it offers ammonia manufacturers to purchase renewable power from the power exchange. The policy grants open access or permission to power plants to procure electricity within 15 days. It also allows ammonia manufacturers to conserve their unconsumed renewable power for up to 30 days.

"The mission aims to aid the government in meeting its climate targets and making India a green hydrogen hub. This will help in meeting the target of production of 5 million tonnes of green hydrogen by 2030 and the related development of renewable energy capacity," said a government statement.

The government said hydrogen and ammonia are envisaged to be the future fuels to replace fossil fuels. Production of these fuels by using power from renewable energy, termed as green hydrogen and green ammonia, is one of the major requirements towards environmentally sustainable energy security of the nation.

Experts welcomed the policy and said this is the first step in the direction of creating a favourable regulatory and enabling environment for the green hydrogen and ammonia sector. "The government has tried to address some of the key demands of the industry in terms of open access, grid banking and faster approvals for green hydrogen and ammonia projects. We specifically welcome the provisions to set up bunkers near ports for the export of green ammonia," said Manoj K Upadhyay, Chairman of ACME Group.

Benefits under policy

- Plants will get access to procure electricity from renewable sources within 15 days
- Ammonia manufacturers can conserve their unconsumed renewable power for up to 30 days
- Waiver of inter-state transmission charges for projects commissioned before June, 2025

BFC set to face NorthEast

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE race for the top four is hotting up with just six points seperating the top six in the ISL table. Likewise, Bengaluru FC, who lie sixth on the table with 23 points, will be eager to collect full points against bottom-placed NorthEast United in Fatorda on Friday.

The Blues will start as favourites whose nine-match unbeaten streak was brought to a halt by Hyderabad FC in the last game. "After the defeat to Hyderabad, we spoke why were unbeaten in nine games. We've got to come back to base, focus on our strong points and make sure we don't let NorthEast United play football. If we do that, we are a hard team to beat," said Pezzaiuoli .

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

IN short, Yash Dhull flew directly from the West Indies where he led India to the U-19 World Cup to Guwahati to make his debut in first class cricket for Delhi. There were, of course, a few sporadic breaks in between for felicitation and functions. For a 19-year-old, a shift to red from white ball cricket could be daunting and at times even intimidating. The transition is always looked at as a big challenge. On top of that, the slot he got was that of an opener, the only one available in the team. Dhull's natural position is No 3 or 4.

High on his beautiful cricket in the Caribbean and with a temperament resembling a senior pro, Dhull, notched up his maiden hundred on debut against Tamil Nadu on Thursday. In the process, he joins an elite company of GR Viswanath, Sachin Tendulkar, Rohit Sharma, to name a few, to score a hundred on debut.

Dhull of course was elated. "Pleased with scoring a hundred for Delhi. It feels nice that it came on my debut. I am happy that it (century) helped the team," said Dhull in an exclusive chat with TNIE.

Dhull reminisced about the time he spent in bio-bubble and talked about those invaluable practice sessions that helped him even during his game on Thursday. "The time at the U-19 World Cup, be it preparations, the games (matches), the bio-bubble was all a learning experience. The overall atmosphere was fantastic and we enjoyed our experience. Certainly it was handy while playing for Delhi. I did not have any problem adapting from white ball to the red ball."

Dhull believed keeping things simple helped him maintain his focus. Dhull began attacking, scoring almost run a ball initially before slowing it down to a comfortable pace to help his team register two crucial stands that helped Delhi get near the 300-run mark. "Yes, I played what came naturally to me. I kept it simple and played on the merit of the ball. After a while, I paced my innings in order to register a couple of stands and help the team post a good total. I wanted to play as long as possible," said Dhull.

Coming back to the Under-19 World Cup, the youngster said it was the most memorable moment of his life and felt that team work and guidance of VVS Laxman and the support staff helped them bag the coveted trophy. "It was a wonderful moment to win the World Cup. We played as a team and won the trophy."

Manish puts K'taka on Railways track

GOMESH S @Chennai

WHEN Karnataka took field in their first Ranji match against Railways, all eyes were on opener Mayank Agarwal, who had a sub-par South Africa series. However, the bigger question for Karn Sharma's team came out of syllabus as Manish Pandey toyed with Railways' bowlers for over three hours at IC-Gurunanak College Ground in Chennai on his way to a swashbuckling 121-ball 156.

Despite losing Mayank early, R Samarth (49) and KV Siddharth steadied the ship before lunch. However, once the former got out shortly post-lunch, Manish made his intentions clear on the very second ball he faced.

The domestic stalwart jumped out of the crease and smacked left-arm spinner Avinash Yadav over long-on. The next over, medium-pacer Amit Sharma was tonked through deep-midwicket. A couple more sixes followed in the next two overs.

Over the next hour and a half, Manish took apart Railways' attack, who were a bowler short as Himanshu Sangwan walked off early in the innings, with some exquisite stroke play on a ground where the boundaries were relatively small.

From 110 for three in 36.2 overs, they went to Tea with 252 for 3 in 64. That Karn and his bowlers were often inconsistent did not help Railways' cause at all.

Manish's mayhem followed after tea as he pulled, checked his on-drive, and swatted Amit down the ground, racing his way into the 90s. Some premature celebrations followed as his team applauded when he was at 95, but shortly after, the 32-year-old got to his 20th first-class century with a six off Amit over long-on. Meanwhile, Siddharth, who held forte at the other end, was the first to reach triple figures a little earlier.

In the 74th over, Manish smashed Avinash, off whom he scored 56 runs from 36 balls, for three sixes, two slog sweeps and a loft out of the ground. He went on to hit 12 fours and 10 sixes, adding 267 runs for fourth wicket, before mistiming a lofted shot off Shivam Chaudhary.

"Wanted to take my chances and took that because anyways the bowlers would have put the fielders behind. I just wanted to get some quick runs to start with and wanted to build up on that momentum," Manish, who was bought by Lucknow Super Giants for ₹4.6 crores in the IPL auction recently, said when queried about his game plan.

With Karnataka finishing with 392 for five, and Siddharth batting at 140, Manish said that they would want to add another 150 runs as they intend to bat only once.

Upbeat India look to seal series

India will look to keep up the momentum and put up a strong show against the West Indies in the second T20I at Eden Gardens on Friday. Talking points...

SKY ON A HIGH

Suryakumar Yadav, who was picked ahead of Shreyas Shreyas in the first T20I, did justice to his selection with a match-winning 18-ball 34. Each and every innings is going to be of vital for the stylist batter and he cannot afford to take it easy with the competition that exists in the batting department.

SPINNERS IN FOCUS

After an impressive show by spinners from both teams — Ravi Bishnoi (India) and Roston Chase (West Indies) — it will be interesting to see how the batters counter them. While they were economical on Wednesday, the batters are expected to do their homework against the spinners on Friday.

WILL KOHLI ROLL BACK THE CLOCK?

Virat Kohli is going through a lean patch of late. After scores of 8, 18, and 0 in the ODI series, the former captain was out for 17 in the first T20I. This is not the kind of number one associates with the Delhi man. Though the batter may not be under pressure to score big, it will be interesting to see how the batter responds to his poor run of scores.

POLLARD'S BATTING POSITION

West Indies skipper Kieron Pollard is central to their batting department, but the explosive batter walked into bat at No.7 in the first game. The batter has to face more deliveries in the middle as he has the experience to change the game on its head.

Swiss players' alternate path for net returns

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

SWITZERLAND is known for its majestic landscape with the snow-clad mountains. For tennis lovers, though, the description may change — land of Roger Federer. However, the climb to the top of the sport is not easy for players from the country, where temperatures drop to below zero degree celsius during winters. With snow being quite regular during the season, they are forced to train indoors for around three to four months, which makes matters complicated.

Hence, some of the Swiss players, including Johan Nikles and Antoine Bellier, competing at the Bengaluru Open 2 ATP Challenger, train abroad, allowing them access to outdoor facilities throughout the year. The former trains in Spain while the latter has trained in Sweden and France for the last six years or so.

"It (weather in my home country and the need for outdoor training) was one of the reasons why I shifted from Switzerland for training. Sometimes the weather is unfortunately not good for training. Seventy five percent of the tournaments are played outdoors. Also, in Switzerland, it becomes difficult to train throughout the year. We do not get to practice much outdoors. From November/December to February, there is snow, and it can rain too," said Bellier, who defeated Sidharth Rawat 4-6, 6-2, 6-4 to move into the quarterfinals of the Challenger event here.

Though the federation has some quality indoor facilities, not everyone is able to make use of it as well. "If you have a very good ranking, you don't pay anything. There are different categories like that, I think," said Nikles, who has also moved into the quarters after his win over Markos Kalovelonis on Thursday. There are private academies for players to train indoors in Switzerland, but they are deemed too expensive. It is at this juncture, where players find it difficult as Nikles puts it, 'your parents need to have a lot of money for that'.

"There are indoor courts in the country, but not many, and they are also expensive. You have to pay for the light, balls etc. You need a lot of money. So either your parents need to have a lot of money or you try to find sponsors. Or you have to be really good (in the sport) to find other solutions. This is why I moved to Spain as it is cheaper there. And it is very important for me to play all year outside," said Nikles, who is ranked 350.

India's singles players exit

India's singles journey came to an end with Arjun Kadhe and Rawat losing their respective ties. However, Saketh Myneni and Ramkumar Ramanathan reached the semifinals in the doubles event after their win over Ukraine-German pair of Vladyslav Orlov and Kai Wehnelt 6-4, 7-6 (3). N Sriram Balaji and Vishnu Vardhan also secured their last four spots.

ADVANTAGE LIVERPOOL

A clinical Liverpool took a big step to reach the last eight of the Champions League. A look at the games on Wednesday night...

EFFICIENT REDS

The Premier League giants only had two shots on target, both coming in the last 20 minutes, but that was enough to beat Inter Milan. Inter had a number of promising situations but squandered their chances because of a lack of composure. The end result was a goal apiece for Roberto Firmino and Mo Salah.

BAYERN FIND A WAY

For 69 mins, it looked like RB Salzburg were going to create a special story. In the end, the Bavarians found the combination to equalise on the cusp of injury time. Truth be said, Bayern had the chances to win the game multiple times but just could not find their shooting boots. Credit must also go to Matthias Jaissle (Salzburg coach).

RESULTS: Inter Milan 0-2 Liverpool, RB Salzburg 1-1 Bayern Munich
